Wish to thank everyone who has sent me info on my Wright family on my Fathers line. They did intermarry with many Wrights, Mulinix and other families. Many of them were Ministers. Many in NC, VA, KY, IN, IL, IA, MO and few others.

I started doing genealogy in 1969 and all my grand parents were gone but had other members of their's could get info from. Otherwise I worked at the court house and library and cemeteries to find info that I could.

I with others spent many a week at the Ft. Wayne, IN library, Salt Lake City library, Madison, WI library and many hours at Columbia, MO library just about every year from when I started. There was 4 of us who went to Iowa City every month during the good weather but now one has moved, one has passed and the other can't get out any longer and no fun to go by your self. So decided it was time to stop. This was before the internet so didn't have that to rely on but was just as well as have found a lot of wrong info on the internet. (I can't say mine is all right either) As much of it was not able to be proven for sure so just had to go by what we could find. But if anyone has proof of what you find is wrong in any of my books I would appreciate knowing it. We know every one is not 100% right as no one is perfect, even in research. New Data June 2017-GLT

So hope these books will be appreciated and enjoyed as much as I had putting them together. But I think now is the time to turn them over to someone else to enjoy as I can't get to the libraries any longer and only the internet to rely on and that isn't as much fun as going to the places where your ancestor's walked themselves.

You will notice different address's but the one above is correct.

THE WRIGHT FAMILY 1066-1929

by George William Wright Albany, Ore.

Descendants of the WRYTA family of Bayeux, Normandy, to England in 1066 with some descendants in America of the KELVEDON line of SIR JOHN WRIGHT of Kelvedon Hall, County Essex, England and of the KILVESTONE line of SIR THOMAS WRIGHT of Kilvestone Hall, County Norfolk, England.

George William Wright wrote the book on Wrights 1066-1929 of Albany, Ore. He dedicated to his parents Gideon Allen Wright and Rebecca Jane (Turner) Wright. Also honor of members of the old Saxon family of Wryta, his ancestors who as soldiers accompanied THE DUKE OF NORMANDY TO ENGLAND in 1066.

The OYster Bay family of Wrights were of the KILVESTONE line of Wrights from County Norfolk, England yet Jonathan Wright who settled on Long Island only 18 miles from those ancestors of Peter and wife who came from the County Essex, England and was of the KELVEDON line of Wrights.

These two lines descend from the 5 WRYGHTA brothers from Bayeux, Normandy, who were soldiers in the Army of the then William Duke of Normandy and accompanied him to England in 1066, when the Duke won by battle the throne of England.

Jonathan came to Mass. colony in 1635 on the ship "Safety" and Peter Wright the records show was in Mass as early as 1636, both becoming prominent in Affairs of Long Island, New York and their descendants intermarried.

There were two Coat of Arms for Wrights, Sir John Wright and Robert Wright, both were the same except for collar around the dragons neck.

Sir JOHN OF KELVEDON HALL, Lord of Kelvedon Manor, Essex, England granted in 1509 was born 1488 and died 1563 and inherited and granted same "arms".

The Wrights in England were proment in Civil and spiritual affairs and many were Knights, Lords and members of Parliment, Judges and other high offices of the King. The records were kept in England.

Morants History Of Essex, Wrights History of Essex, The Records of the Prerogative (Probate) Court of Canterbury, various town, church and parish registers of Essex, Norfolk and other counties of England furnish much authentic history of the Wright families of England from the time of William the Conqueror in 1066.

In America where many of the Wright families from England early emigrated their records of achievement may be found and often their genealogy in the old Northwest Genealogical Quarterly, Savages Genealogical Dictionary, New England Genealogical and Historial Register, Plymouth Colony Records and numerous town records. and Genealogical Publications in New England and every one of the 13 original colonies.

The old English Biographical Dictionary states the WRIGHTS of our family came from Normandy with William the Conqueror in 1066.

The founders of the Wright family were of Saxon origin being among those early Saxon Vikings, who early settled in Normandy, at what is now Bayeux, France.

The Saxons were a war like adventurous people, probably more so than any other Teutonic Tribes and as early as the year 400 AD they commenced to settle along the coast of what is now France.

HUSBAND - Evans WRIGHT-550

BIRTH: Several sources list birth date as Jan 1762 probably Orange Co. NC. Had thought Evans middle initial maybe have been C. but only one place this shows up and believe it meant to be only his mark and not initial. Evins was listed in will of father and was also a witness 1784. He was to receive something or cow, a feather bed and furniture and price of a good saddle and bridle.

MARRIAGE: Not located marriage record to date in NC or KY but most probably they married in Rowan Co. NC about 1790 as earliest children's descendants have stated they were born in Rowan Co. NC. Sources have stated wife was Rebecca Summers.

DEATH: Evans will was written 27 Jan 1846 and probated 10 Feb 1846 in Macon Co. and recorded Book 1 pg 5, of which I have a copy. Will listed wife Rebecca and 10 children. Witness: Thomas K. White, William Murphy, Henry Powell and H. England. Have not located a burial place for him or Rebecca to date. Have checked all the cemeteries in Macon Co. and nothing. He would have been age 84 at time he wrote his will and stated he was in good health of sound mind and memory and to be decently interred in the earth at the right time. Less than 15 days he was deceased.

CHILDREN: 10 children listed in will of Evans: Jemima Vestal, Elizabeth Mullinix, Johnson Wright, Claiborn Wright, Summers Wright, Nancy Vickrey, Martin Wright, Allen Wright, Evans Wright & Rebecca Terrell. It appears all land records listed land on Beaver Creek but some of the childrens birth places were listed as Otter Creek, KY and none Beaver Creek. Most of the land records didn't start until 1819 so would account for difference maybe.

Macon Co. MO was created 1838 from Randolph Co. and Adair Co. was created 1841 from Macon Co.

1875 Atlas of Macon Co. MO stated by 1833-44 Rev. Allen Wright, Johnson Summers, Evans Wright Sr, Abner Vickery, James A. Terrell, Summers Wright, Johnson Wright, Bennet C. Wright, Benjamin Cooly, Jacob Vestal, Maxey Miller, John Miller, L.D. Miller and Rev James Moody came to area.

Dale Walker has said they were buried in the Mullinix cem, in Schuyler Co., just over the county line of Putnam. I haven't located a cemetery there. This maybe called the Johnson-Mullinix cem. as well, BUT IF IT IS THEY AREN'T BURIED THERE.

No will or estate record was located in Putnam Co. Mo for Jesse or Elizabeth. Haven't checked Schuyler Co. but believed their land was in Putnam Co.

in Chariton Twp of Randolph Co. Mo and in 1837 moved his family north into what is now Putnam Co. MO. His settlement was along the Chariton River at the foot of Blackbird Ridge, and known for many years as Mullinix Settlement.

Jesse was said never to be much of a farmer and preferred to provide for his family through the pursuit of game. He spent much of his time hunting and often roamed far away from home and being gone for extended periods. On one of his expeditions he located the area on Blackbird Creek. When Jesse brought his family and others into that area there were only 11 other families there. Jesse and Elizabeth spent the remainder of their lives there, both dying in the 1860's. The Mullinix Cemetery was established on a higher slope on the East bank of Chariton River and lies in Schuyler Co, MO rather than Putnam. Info from Dale Walker and Jeanne Adams.

Putnam Co. MO History 1888: pg 426- Jesse Mullenix settled Mullenix Settlement in Putnam Co. MO in 1838 coming from Howard Co. MO with Frederick Miller, his son in law and Johnson Wright, his brother in law also coming abt the same time.

SOURCES:

Book "Marriage Records of Wayne Co. KY 1801-1860" by Mildred Moody Nutter pub 1972 pg 116.

"History of Macon Co. MO" pub 1910 page 454: Biograph of Robert T. Wright, son of Johnson and Eliza J. Trimble Wright. Natives of Blue Grass State. Says Johnson was preacher and had 9 children with 6 living. Johnson died 1865 and wife 1888. Grandfather was Evans Wright and great grandfather was Richard Wright.

"History of Randolph Co. MO pub 1884 pg 120: Shows deed written by Johnson and Eliza Jane Wright, for land they owned and deed between them and God.

Pg ?: stated Johnson & Eliza were the oldest married couple in the County, but Johnson had died in 1868 and the book printed in 1884. And they weren't the first in the county so this statement doesn't make sense.

Pg 148 Chapter VI Chariton Twp: States "Johnson Wright was one of the most eccentric men that ever lived in the township. He was at first a minister of the gospel, but did not entirely agree in doctrine with any religious denomination, and we doubt if he ever belonged to any church. He sold his farm in Chariton Twp. in 1837 and moved to Macon, which county he soon represented in the State Legislature. He was in the habit of doing some things, which, although not considered immoral in themselves, were nevertheless thought to be unbecoming the character of a minister of the gospel. But he always justified himself by quotations from the scriptures, and by citing the example of some old patriarch who indulged in the same practices. Among other things, he was very fond of the game of euchre, and claimed that this, his favorite amusement, had the divine sanction, because he had seen the word "Eucharist" in the Bible. He returned to Chariton Twp. in 1847, where he lived until his death, some years after. Towards the latter part of his life some of his eccentricities were so absurd that most of his acquaintances considered him insane. He voted at the August election of 1850 at Huntsville, but his ballot contained only the name of "Jesus Christ for the office of head of the Church". When it was suggested to him that Christ had been elected to that office over 1800 years ago, his reply was: "Well, if it has been that long it is time he was re-elected." His erratic notions on religious subjects culminated before his death in his deeding his farm to Christ, upon the fancied consideration, no doubt, that he would be granted an equivalent interest in the happy land of Canaan. He was, withal, one of the kindest of men and had the friendship and regard of all who knew him. He was several times married, and raised quite a family of children, some of whom and his widow, we believe, still live in Chariton township." Apparently who wrote this knew Johnson Wright.

On the east side of Darks' Prairie, south and east of the present site of Darksville (1832) Johnson Wright and others were living.

Pg 239 Chapter XIII: 1861 Robert Trimble an aged man of 75 or 80 was found hanging from a tree on the farm of Mr Baker. He was the father of Eliza J. Trimble Wright and was living with her at the time. Preston Wright, E.H.

On this seventeenth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred & forty personally appeared in open Court before the Hon. the Judges of the Circuit Court of Harrison County within the second Judicial Circuit of the State of Indiana now sitting at the Court House in Corydon in said County William Henson a resident of said County aged about eighty one years who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June 7th 1832

That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officer and served as herein stated:

That he William Henson was born as near as he can recollect in the year 1758 or 1759 in Culpepper County Virginia - he has now no record of his age having lost the book in which it was contained. That that his parents removed with him while he was yet quite a small boy to Randolph County in North Carolina, that he continued to live in ^{said} Randolph County until called into service. That he ^{during the revolutionary war} volunteered as a private soldier in a regiment of militia commanded by Colonel Thomas Sagan in a company of light horse under the immediate command of Captain John Hains who was the Captain of the Company to which he belonged. That he served a tour of duty in said Company for a period of six months commencing in the early part of the month of September and ending in the early part of the month of March following. That he cannot recollect whether the tour of duty commenced and ended on the precise first days of those months respectively, and that he cannot now remember the precise years but that it was towards the end of the war. The company was made up chiefly of the persons living in his neighborhood in said Randolph County. The Lieutenant's name was Aquilla Jones. The first sergeant's name was Fulton - he thinks his Christian name was James. Amongst the private who served in the same Company he remembers the names of Thomas Garner, William Wright, John Hines, Evans Wright, John Stephens, Robert Stephens, Shubel or Larry York, Anthony Hains

Thomas Summers, Sr

Death: 1805

Thomas Summers , Sr.
PIONEER FAMILIES OF NORTHEAST MISSOURI
Margaret Austin sent me an updated FGS for this family

He was a Farmer & a Baptist

Note by Margaret Austin:

Heirs of Thomas Summers, Sr., Wayne Co. Ky.
Deed Bk. A:138, dated 29 July 1805.

Margaret Austin also says, "I spent about 10 days in N.C. in 1988 on a research trip and identified five distinct groups of Summers families. The earliest that I can document our family there is 1785, but if census reports of birth states of children are accurate, they were there earlier than that. As to where they were before that, it's anybody's guess. Possibly Virginia, but that's nothing more than a wild guess."

Margaret Austin suggest his birthdate as 1726. She speculates his disappearance from the tax rolls while yet living was due to the exemption for being over age.

Thomas Alford (son of John Alford and Mary Dawson) was born 1725 in Virginia, and died Nov 1805 in ?. He married Elizabeth Field on date unknown in ?.

Notes for Thomas Alford:
[Summers.FTW]

The name of Thomas Alford is found in many old records. He was listed in Stephen Trigg's Co. in 173. In 1774 he was mentioned in the auditor's accounts following Dunsmor's War. His name is found as an employee of George Washington to Lund Washington "Camp as Cambridge" Aug. 20th, 1775, excerpt from Tyler's Quarterly, Vol 7 (Genealogical) -- General Washington refers to paying Thomas Alford 100 Pounds a year. In 1777 Thomas Alford took the oath of allegiance to the state of Va., (Kegley & Kegley, Early Adventures. In 1781 he was listed in Captain Frederick Edward's Co. of Militia, but was listed "not fit" for duty. Other references are found in 'The Families' in Chap. III, Alford.

In Summers' Annals, p. 678, there is a ref. to a survey Thomas had made for 225 acres. Nov 14, 1805 Thomas Alford wrote his final will stating that he was sick. the will was probated in Dec 1805 in Wythe County, VA. In the will Thmas appoints his son Moses to "maintain his mother Elizabeth Alford during her natural life". He cuts off all others with "one dollar currency to each of them." The will does no name the other children. His daughter Mary is our link. She married Charles Baker. We have a copy of the marriage bond, Feb 10, 1786 in Montgomery County, VA. at Christiansburg. Parent Thomas Alford security.

See Mary Kegley's 'Early Adventures on Western Waters', Chap III Vol II pg. 134 & 364 // pg. 134 - "Thomas Alford -- commissioners certified 300 acres on Round Hill -- settled 1768 and "given up" w/ plot 1784. / ph 364 -- "1783, Thomas Alford, 225 acres w. side of New River grant 1785" Montgomery Cty. survey filed at Christiansburg. + "1783 Joseph Baker 25 acres Cove (Cave?) Fork of Peak Creek" Whitye Cty, Surveys.

"1796 - John Baker, legatee of Joseph Baker deceased, 176 acres head of Little Pine Run, Branch of New River, south side of Draper's Mt., adjoining Andrew Boyd, Geo. Draper and Henry Honaker." pg. 365 Note - Henry Honaker was a son-in-law of Joseph Joel Baker Sr. He married Edith Baker.

The records of the descendants of the Alford's are voluminous (26 pgs) and tell of a town in Indiana founded by James Alford, called Alfordsville. James gave ground for the first church (Christian) and for the first schoolhouse in Reeve Township, DuBois County, Indiana. Another settlement of Alfords was near Peru, Kansas (Alford Cemetery there).

Mary Alford Baker

Birth: 1764
Death: Feb. 22, 1824

Wife of Charles Baker, Sr.
Daughter of Thomas Alford & Elizabeth Field.

Her grave was noted in an undated newspaper article (thought to be from the late 1800's or early 1900's) as the oldest marked grave in Randolph County, then located on a farm near Randolph Springs. Her present stone is either a replacement stone, or was moved to this cemetery, perhaps by her son, Isaac Baker, also buried here.

GAP CREEK BAPTIST CHURCH

The OTTER CREEK BAPTIST CHURCH was received into the Tate's Creek Association in 1801. They remained with this body until 1805 when they left it to join the Stockton's Valley Association. As far as our records go back though, the Church was organized in 1808. Two of the charter leaders at that time were W.H. HALL and B.F. HANCOCK. The first pastor was REUBEN OWENS. In October 1809, they helped organize the Cumberland River Association. In 1825, they helped organize the South Concord Association due to the churches being so scattered that it was difficult to attend the meetings. In 1922, the name of the church was changed to Gap Creek. The present building was erected in 1950. In 1955, the church joined the Wayne County Association. On 15 July 1962, JOE PERDEW was ordained to the Ministry. Some of the Ministers of the Church were J.M. DICKERSON, JAMES D. SELVIDGE, T.A. CATRON, WESLEY DENNEY, ISAAC HUCABY, CLAY SLAGLE, JIMMIE DUNNINGTON, JOHN STEPHENS, ORA JONES, RAYMOND ABBOTT, ROBERT BURCHFIELD, MARVIN COMEST, ELDON DENNEY and the present Pastor, RONALD RILEY - Wayne County Association of Baptist's Annual.

CALLAO TOWNSHIP.

Callao township is in the south-western part of the county, lying just north of Morrow township. It was originally, or when first laid out, no larger than Morrow, but is now about thirty-six miles square. It is watered by the Middle fork of the Chariton river, Stinking creek, and Chariton river. Within its territory are also located Fed, Swan, and Trestle lakes, the largest of which is Swan lake, which covers about 700 acres of land in sections 15, 16, 21 and 22. These lakes are within a half mile of each other, and are connected by a small stream. Swan lake was so named because it resembles a swan in shape. The Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad Company constructed a trestle work through the north end of Trestle lake, hence the name, "Trestle" lake. The township was named after the town of Callao, which is situated in the same, and the town of Callao was named by Samuel Kinney after a South American city.

SOME OF THE FIRST SETTLERS.

Clairborne Wright, from Kentucky; Jacob Lowe, from North Carolina; William Everhard, from Ohio; John Roe, from England; George Perry, William Perry and Henry Perry, from North Carolina; Daniel Pillers, from Ohio; Isaac Summers and Elza Perkins, from Kentucky; John Dameron, from North Carolina; Samuel Mamaduke, John Brammar, John Gentle, George Gentle, Martin Wright, May Claybrook, David Freeman and Enoch Humphrey, from Kentucky; Samuel Humphrey, James Mott, Mike Sweeney and John Sweeney, from Ireland; L. P. Claybrook, Allen Wright and Allen Gunther, from Kentucky.

The earliest religious denominations to organize churches in Callao township were the Baptists and Cumberland Presbyterians. Union Ridge Church (Baptist) was the first house of worship. Allen Wright (Christian) held meetings in the township quite early, so did James Ratcliff, a Baptist minister. The first school was taught in a log-house located on the farm of George Green. Dr. Park was the pioneer physician.

CALLAO.

Callao was laid out on the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad in 1858, by Samuel Humphrey and Samuel Kenn. Kenn erected the first business house in the town, which was used as a store and hotel. The first dwelling house was built by Humphrey. William Eberhard opened a blacksmith shop. The town contains three dry goods and grocery stores, two drug stores, one furniture store, one hotel, one harness shop, one restaurant, one hardware store, one livery stable and two blacksmith shops. About 10 cars of freight comprising stock, tobacco and grain, are shipped from here monthly. There are four churches: M. E. Church South, Presbyterian, and two colored churches—Baptist and Methodist. One flour mill which cost $8,000, and a woolen mill; the motive power of each is steam. The population of the place is 500. There is a daily mail and express.

BEVIER TOWNSHIP.

This township lies immediately west of Hudson township and contains 30 square miles. The Hannibal and St. Joe Railroad passes through its center from east to west. The water courses are few in number, and are confined to the north-western part of the township.

These streams include the Middle fork of the Chariton river and two or three small tributaries.

OLD SETTLERS.

William Green came from Kentucky and settled south of and near the present site of Bevier; Wilburn Hughes, from South Carolina, settled west of Bevier; Solomon Mullinax came from Kentucky; Daniel Barrow, from Virginia; Philip Gilstrap, from Kentucky; Thomas and William White, from Tennessee; George Parker, from Kentucky; Lewis Cross, from Kentucky; Daniel Johnson, from Kentucky. Among other early settlers were John Sneed, Col. Jacob Johnson, William Garrett, Jonathan Bremner, Jefferson Patrick, Lewis Magee, John Terrill, Leroy Penton, Joseph Summers, Milton Cristial, Slias Cristial, Jefferson White, Solomon Shoemaker, Ellison Miller, John Miller, Sr., Pernneas Banta, Evans Wright, Elijah Mitchell, Timothy Cooley.

The settlers above named include many of those who came to the township between the years 1832 and 1845.

The Baptists erected the first house of worship about the year 1856. Rev. James Moody was an early minister of the gospel. The first school-house was built about 1838, one and one-half miles south of Bevier. William Mathews, from North Carolina, was the first school teacher. J. B. Winn, from Kentucky, was one of the first physicians. Lewis Cross opened the first blacksmith shop.

BEVIER.

Bevier was laid out in 1858, by John Duff, and named after Col. Robert Bevier, from Kentucky. The land upon which the town was started was originally the property of Lewis Gilstrap, who entered 160 acres. The plat embraces the north-east quarter and the east half of the north-west quarter, of section 15, township 57, range 15, and was filed for record June 29, 1858.

James McDermith, an Irishman, opened the first hotel.

The first board of trustees of the town were Daniel Rowland, chairman; A. B. Goodale, Thomas Francis, David Jones and J. E. Frame. The first marshal of the town was P. C. Grimes. William Hardister opened the first store; Col. Benjamin Shackelford erected one of the first business houses. The first dwelling house was built by Ar-bory Bower. John H. Kennedy was the first white child born in the town. Oscar Parker was the first postmaster. The first mill was erected in the township by Oliver Hughes, in 1880. John Skinner was the first mail carrier, his route extending from Huntsville to Bloomington. The first church was built in Bevier in 1862.

ROUND GROVE TOWNSHIP.

Round Grove township was reorganized in 1872, and lies in the south-eastern portion of the county, bordering upon Shelby county. It contains an area of 36 square miles, about one-third of which is covered with timber. Its surface is veined by the Middle fork of Salt river, Bee branch and Winn creek. The land produces excellent corn, oats, timothy and clover; and a good quality of tobacco is of the storm to learn the facts as near as possible. In many places it was a scene of remarkable destruction, and many instances were plain of the terrific character of the disturbing element.

Though we could not obtain a very clear idea of the character or manner of creation, it seems that the cyclone formed in the Chariton bottom, about one mile west of A. B. Lewis, 14 or 15 miles south-west of Macon, and was accompanied by the usual funnel-shaped cloud.

No fences were left in any part of the storm, which was about one-quarter of a mile wide, and in many orchards and in the woods the trees were torn up by the roots or twisted into shreds. In many places trees were carried a considerable distance. In fact we saw some trees in the woods torn up by the roots, and could not see where they came from.

The first damage to buildings was the partial destruction of Mr. A. B. Lewis' barn 14 miles south-west of Macon. Damage perhaps $300.

The place of Mr. C. E. Miller, about one mile north-east, was next in line, and not a thing of the fine house and barn and out-houses was left standing. Every building was literally riddled, and his orchard and trees generally were torn up by the roots. Part of the building was blown two and a half miles. R. Green's little boy was seriously hurt, having his thigh bone broken in two places. Mr. Miller's wife was seriously injured, and he also sustained some loss in stock killed, losing one fine mule and its mate broken down in the back. He also lost some cattle. Mr. Miller's improvements were good, and his loss is estimated at $3,000 to $4,000.

A mile still further this way the house of J. A. Summers was entirely destroyed, and his barn about half carried away and out-houses damaged. His apple trees were also ruined. Damage perhaps $1,000.

West a quarter of a mile was the house of John Clarkson, but now there is nothing left on the place but ruins, and Mrs. Clarkson was instantly killed. At the time of the shock Mr. and Mrs. Clarkson were standing together on the floor. When Mr. Clarkson regained consciousness he heard his wife groan, and, on moving, felt her lying close to him, and discovered they were in a mass of debris, about 25 feet from where they had been standing. Attempting to pick Mrs. Clarkson up he found she was dead. He was greatly shocked, but not seriously hurt. The house seemed to have rolled over, and the walls were broke in two. Loss on property about $2,000.

Three hundred yards west of Mr. Clarkson's the buildings and trees of Esq. Joe Burris were swept away, his family being saved in the cellar. Esq. Burris had a fine place, and it is thought $4,000 will not replace his improvements.

Burris' school-house near by was razed to the ground and his wife seriously hurt.

A quarter of a mile this side of Mr. Burris' the place of Mr. Kieger, a German, was damaged, but no particulars learned.

Still further north-east a quarter of a mile, William Shunk's house was unroofed and a girl injured.

A half mile north, the buildings on the place of John Blankenship were riddled. Loss $1,500 to $2,000.

A half mile still further to the north-east is the place of Charley Buster, whose buildings were all destroyed. When the shock came the family ran into the smoke-house, but just as they entered it it was carried off. The house belonged to James Banta. Loss on buildings about $500. Mr. Buster's loss is about $150.

In the same neighborhood Mrs. John Miller's barn was unroofed and wrecked.

A half mile this side of Buster's the house belonging to Evans Wright and occupied by Evans Summers was blown down and burned catching fire from the stove. The house was not valuable—worth perhaps $300. Mr. Summers lost everything in his house.

In the same neighborhood the buildings of Mrs. Jane Rower were unroofed, but could not get particulars.

The chimney on Allen Miller's house was torn down and his barn wrecked. Damage about $400.

All the buildings on Allen Banta's place, still further north-east, were razed to the ground, but the family, fortunately, were not at home. The loss is put at $2,500.

Three-fourths of a mile or so north-east the barn of Thomas Roberts was unroofed and his house wrecked. Damage about $1,500. Next north-east, less than a mile, the house of Wes Banta was razed to the ground, but the barn still stands, though wrecked. Damage about $600.

In same neighborhood the house of Thomas Banta was lifted up, the end carried around 40 or 50 feet and set down entirely away from the foundation, the east front turned directly north. Part of the roof was torn off, but it did not look to be otherwise greatly damaged. Some of Mr. Banta's out-houses were razed to the ground. The above two gentlemen compose the firm of Banta Bros., grocers, on Rollins street, this city.

The next house in the line of the storm was that of Elijah Banta's, where quite a number of the relatives and friends had assembled to see Mrs. Banta and Mr. James. Mrs. Banta's father, both of whom were confined to their beds in the house with illness. There were in all 17 persons in the house, but one of whom escaped entirely unhurt, and not a stick of a single building on the place was left standing. Of those in the house, Mrs. Elijah Banta was fatally injured, living about half an hour, and Mr. Mordecai Harp and his son Alonzo were seriously and perhaps fatally injured. The old gentleman was bruised about the stomach, and the young man had a frightful hole—large enough to admit of three fingers—torn into his side under the arm-pit, extending into the hollow of the body. The bedstead on which Mr. James was lying was carried away, and he left lying on the ticking on the floor where the bed

Dear Gladys,

I am both eating crow and crowing!! Richard Wright, Sr., who died 1785 in Rowan Co., N.C. is definitely Evans' father.

We just recently returned from an Elderhostel week at the Kentucky State University in Frankfort, studying genealogy, Ky. Bourbon and Ky. architecture, followed by a few days in North Carolina. About a week before we left, I received a copy of the 1785 will of Richard Wright, Sr., (just like the one you sent me). Then about two days later, I received another copy of the Will of Richard Wright from Mary Casad of San Diego, Calif. The wills were identical except,-- (1) the handwriting was different. (2) Evans' name was spelled Evins', and (3) there was a bequest to 'my son Evins'. To make a long story short, the copy from Mary was the same as the original one on file at the State Archives at Raleigh. The copy from the Probate Court in Rowan County, was incorrect. Apparently some clerk in 1785 disinherited Evans, not his father. I am enclosing the correct copy together with the proof that Richard's widow was Ann. The record is in the process of being corrected, hence the 'crowing'. I was so positive that Richard was wrong, I'm now eating crow. I guess I'm hunting Richard's father together with everyone else.

In North Carolina, we found a deed dated Oct. 8, 1762 where Richard . Wright of Orange Co., N.C. purchased property from Arthur and Margaret Parr in Rowan Co., N.C. Later, on Apr. 8, 1764, Richard and wife, Ann, of Orange Co., N.C. sold property to Harmon Husbands. Since Evans was born in 1762, I guess his birth place would be Orange Co., N.C. instead of Rowan, as I was told. Also, in Rowan Co., on the 1800 census for North Carolina is the following:

Evans Wright 2 1 0 1 0 3 0 0 0 0

If the same is our Evans,-- Elizabeth, Johnson, Jemina and possibly Claibourn are accounted for. Wonder what happened to the male 10-16 and 2 females under 10? Where is his wife? Also, in your family sheet, you headed it EVANS C. WRIGHT. Where did the 'C' come from? And to make things more confusing, in the HISTORY OF MACON CO., 1884, C. Wright says that both he and his parents, Evan and Rebecca Wright, were natives of Virginia. 'Ain't' genealogy fun? Since Richard Wright Sr., has officially become an ancestor, I am enclosing Pat Walker's penned history. Indicently, his address is DALE L. WALKER, 4256 Botanical Ave. No. 6, St. Louis, Mo., 63110.

I already had Evans' will, but thanks anyway. Don't you just love the following excerpt? '.....and as to the balance of my effects, I reserve for the suport of myself and my aged consort Rebecca until our decease.....' But, would you believe that in Bath Co. Ky., I found the will of Benjamin Snelling, written in THIRD PERSON, and predating his death by one day, stating his intentions as of the day before. And if that isn't confusing, his father wrote his will on the same day and survived the son by one month. I would love to know what happened.

I descend from Peter Wright of the WRIGHT FAMILY OF OYSTER BAY, L.I., N.Y. The only copy I know of is at the D.A.R. Library in Washington D.C. I had copied as much of it as I could at the time. If memory serves me right, there was a limit as to the number of pages you could have copied.

The Miller Cemetery is located in Bevier Township, Sec. 35, east of Rt. C, South of Bevier on the Powell Farm. We have never been there, but the following are buried there:

Adra - dau. of J.M. and C.B. Miller

b. 22 Dec. 1812
d. 14 Aug. 1874

Malinda Miller
b. 21 Jan. 1816
d. 4 Feb. 1894

I am sure there are about 11 or 12 volumes of the Macon Co. cemetery books at the Macon City Library. The next time we are there, will copy the Miller Cemetery for you, I'm sure it is listed.

Now for some more confusing information, - our Jesse Miller died in 1840 leaving a widow, Lucy. If memory serves me right, in 1846 another Jesse Miller died leaving a widow, Lucy. I have misplaced the indexed copy I had of the last will, but I'm sure the heirs agree with the 1850 Lucy Miller census. According to some source, Lucy Miller was living with Tom Miller, son of Ellison Miller in 1880. I haven't checked this as yet. But I'm going to.

Our Elderhostel week in Kentucky was a lot of fun, and I think we will do it again perhaps next year in either North Carolina, Virginia, or perhaps near Washington D.C. We went to North Carolina for a few days after the week in Kentucky. All in all, we took 3 families back one generation, corrected a 200 year old mistake, definitely located Dan's line ancestor on Jan 22, 1813. (He was a P.O.W. after the Raisin River battle in the War of 1812, and I discovered that one of my g (?) grandfathers enlisted in the Rev. War when he was 10 years old. Lasted 8 days. I'm hoping there is still a record. Spunky little devil. We obtained a lot of misc. information, that I haven't yet assessed. Been busy redecorating, cleaning for company, preparing for a 50th class reunion, and recovering from trip. Keep in touch.

Sincerely,
Jeanne

P.S. I am also enclosing 3 of your family photos, with additions so they will confirm with mine. Any corrections, let me know.

HUSBAND - James Vestal

James was probably born abt 1790-1795 and died after 1840 census and before 1850 census and was in Macon Co. MO at that time.

Marriage was recorded in Wayne Co. KY and published in Wayne Co. Marriages by Nutter pg 109.

Not located burial place to date. May not have looked at complete cemetery books to date.

1830 Randolph Co. MO pg 333: James Vestal males 5/10-1 10/15-2 30/40-1 and females to 5-2 30/40-1.

1840 Macon Co. MO Chariton Twp. pg 22: James Vestal males 5/10-2 10/15-1 20/30-1 30/40-1 and females 10/15-1 30/40-1. Accounts for all the children, James & Emsley, Johnson, David and Mary. (Here believe parents should be 40/50)

Family group sheet located at the Moberly, MO library Oct 1998 listed James md 1814 as son of John? Vestal. Listed

Notes

HUSBAND - James Vestal (Continued)

9 children, with only 3 named, Jesse? md 1835 Sarah Vestal Randolph Co. MO, James E. b. 1815 d. 1897 md 1842 Elizabeth Poole and Nancy b. 1827 md 1844 Samuel Boston. (no other source has Jesse listed as son).

WIFE - Jemima Wright

*Couldn't find Jemima or James in Find A Grave site. There was one Edward Johnson Vestal b 1829 that married Eliza Francis Rose Vestal Johnson 1834-1915. She said she md Edward Johnson Vestal 1929-1916 and maybe md before to John Martin Johnson 1837-1910. Had a son Emsley Evans Vestal since the names are close could be md son of Jemima Wright and James Vestal.

Other child Nancy Vestal 1820-1898 dau of James and Jemima Vestal married Samuel Boston 1820-1886 Bur: Johnson-Mullenix cem. No other child listed or parents listed either. (copy)

BIRTH: Descendants from Wright and Mullanix families and census records. Birth has been listed as 1793 and 1800, not sure which is right.

MARRIAGE: Recorded Wayne Co. KY Md by E. Jones and Bondsman Jesse Mullenix. If b. 1800 would be age 14 when married so prob. 1793 date is closer to right.

DEATH: Last located Jemima in 1860 Putnam Co. MO census at age 60 KY if right would have been born 1800 in KY. (family had said 1793 NC). If md 1814 she would have been older then 14 I think.

1810 Wayne Co. KY pg 366 Evan Wright has two daughters age to 10 and 10/16 and either could be Jemima. If born 1793 would be 17.

1830 Randolph Co. MO pg 333 James Vestal with female age 30/40. 5 children.

1840 Macon Co. MO Chariton Twp. pg 22 James Vestal with female age 30/40. 6 children.

1850 Macon Co. MO pg 185 #1014/1028 MINA Vestal age 50 NC with dau. Home of Samuel Boston 22, Nancy 23, Patten Martin 4, Martha 2, James 6/12. (mother of Nancy Vestal)

1860 Putnam Co. MO Jemima age 60 Ky with son Johnson Vestal 35, Eliza 22, Benjamin 6, John 4, Emsley 7/12.

1870 Hadn't located Jemima as Putnam Co. census hard to read.

Family group sheet located at the Moberly, MO library Oct 1998 listed Mina Wright md to James Vestal 1814 and listed 9 children and only 3 named: Jesse? md 1835 Sarah Vestal Randolph Co. MO, James E. b. 1815 d. 1897 md 1842 Elizabeth Poole Macon Co., MO and Nancy b. 1827 md 1844 Samuel Boston Macon Co. MO. (other sources did not list a son Jesse and birth date for James was way different).

Info from Esther Connors who said John "Tobe" may have had a 2nd wife Ann Mullinix. Md Calysta Ann Vestal first.

Im' not sure as if the Rose cemetery records are right, John L. Morrow 1863-1935 is listed next to Ann Morrow 1865- no date. Believe this to be Calysta Ann and maybe went by Ann.

Also stated Ethel Jessie Morrow md Wm "Steward" Bennett and had son Harvey Travis Bennett (also known as Jack Bennett) and he had a dau Esther Bennett Connors.

Need to get more on this family.

Obituary Unionville Republican
12/22/1915:

(much of this must have been the words of E. E. Vestal)

Mrs. Eliza Johnson died Sunday, December 5, 1915, at 7 PM being at the time of her death 81 years 3 months and 5 days of age. She died at the home of her son, E. E. Vestal (Emsley Evans Vestal). She was united in marriage to Johnson Vestal (Edward Johnson Vestal) and was married when she was 17 years of age. She was born in Chariton County, Mo., and to this union were born 9 children, 5 of whom are living and 4 of whom are dead. Three children survive her: John Vestal of Unionville, Ive Vestal (Emsley Evans Vestal) of Stahl and Mary Workman of Kansas City, Kan. After living as a widow a few years she was united in marriage to Martin Johnson (John Martin Johnson). At her death she didn't belong to any church. However, she believed in a God who was able to save his people from their sins, from the least to the greatest. She believed that God would work everything after the counsel of His own will and none could stay his hand. (The coming paragraph must have been the words of E. E. Vestal) Mother is gone and our home is left desolate. She left children and a host of grandchildren and great grandchildren. She was a loving mother and grandmother to all of her children. Her funeral services were conducted by Labe McFarland. She was laid to rest in the Rose Cemetery near Graysville. Mother is gone. She can never come to us. I hope by the grace of God we will meet where no farewell tears are shed. It is God, He who breathed us can all our sorrows heal.

HUSBAND - Jesse Mullinix *

BIRTH: Only year and place for birth from others and census records. It is believed Jesse was the son of Jonathan and Susanna Mullinix of NC. Received complete birth date from Linda Lang, P.O. Box 0561, Veradale, WA 99037-0561 Sep 1998. She descends from son Evan C. Mullinix.

MARRIAGE: Their marriage recorded Wayne Co. KY. Have a copy from book of Mg records that was published from original records. Jesse Mullenix and Betsey Wright. Surety: Evan Wright. Bond dated 25 Aug and md 30 Aug 1810 by Elliott Jones. Endorsement on bond: "Ladys parents present and consented".

DEATH: Not located death date for sure. It appears it was after 1860 census and before 1870 census. Others have also stated 1861/1869. Dale Walker has said they were buried in the Mullinix cem, in Schuyler Co., just over the county line of Putnam. I haven't located a cemetery there. This maybe called the Johnson-Mullinix cem. as well. Info from internet listed his death date as 6 Jun 1860 Elm Twp, Putnam Co. MO.

No will or estate record was located in Putnam Co. Mo for Jesse or Elizabeth. Haven't checked Schuyler Co. but believed their land was in Putnam Co.

Find A Grave internet site listed Jesse birth and death date and places. spouse, 7 children of 10 with death years as well as birth years. 10 were listed in one place with birth years. (copy)

Will use the list on Find A Grave but really need obits to know which year each was born as different age in both places.

CHILDREN: From Wright History and census records, mg and other researchers. Jesse and Elizabeth was said to have had 10 children.

1790 census Jesse would be age 1 with parents.

1800 Jesse would be age 11 and probably with mother in Randolph Co. NC.

1810 Jesse would be age 21 and listed in Wayne Co. KY pg 366.

1820 Probably in Wayne Co. KY.

His sons info said he went to Putnam Co. IN 1827 then to Macon Co. MO 1838 and by 1839 was in Putnam Co. MO where he lived 71 years at his death. This is a little different info then fathers. We know they were in census of 1830 Randolph Co. MO so maybe they just went to IN for couple years then by 1829 back to Ky to go to MO with rest of family.

It was stated 1829 Jesse joined the migration of a large number of people from Wayne Co, KY and came to Missouri. First settled at the edge of Dark's Prairie in Chariton Twp of Randolph Co. Mo and in 1837 moved his family north into what is now Putnam Co. MO. His settlement was along the Chariton River at the foot of Blackbird Ridge, and known for many years as Mullinix Settlement.

Jesse was said never to be much of a farmer and prefered to provide for his famiy through the pursuit of game. He spent much of his time hunting and often roamed far away from home and being gone for extended periods. On one of his expeditions he located the area on Blackbird Creek. When Jesse brought his family and others into that area there were only 11 other families there. Jesse and Elizabeth spent the remainder of their lives there, both dying in the 1860's. The Mullinix Cemetery was established on a higher slope on the East bank of Chariton River and lies in Schuyler Co, MO rather then Putnam. Info from Dale Walker and Jeanne Adams.

Putnam Co. MO History 1888: pg 426- Jesse Mulenix settled Mullenix Settlement in Putnam Co. MO in 1838 coming from Howard Co. MO with Frederick Miller, his son in law and Johnson Wright, his brother in law also coming abt the same time.

Some info from Dale Walker sent to Jeanne Adams which she sent to me. Stated Preston was a merchant and storekeeper in Putnam and Adair Counties. Later he farmed in Putnam and Schuyler counties.
CHILD 2 - Rebecca Mullinix
BIRTH: Census records list b.d.1811/1814 but cemetery records of Hurley-Morgan cem. listed age 36 in 1850 census & d.1886. Dale Walker info from Jeanne Adams list b.d. 1811. With complete b.d. of a brother of 1811 and 1813 I don't know if Rebecca was 2nd child, or the first.
Others listed John Sumpter b 1811 NC died 1855-60 MO (but if Rebecca's Find A Grave site is right he lived a lot longer then that in AR. with other wife and 10 more children).
MARRIAGE: Recorded Wayne Co. KY. Copied from book on Marriages. Md by William Summers.
DEATH: Cemetery records from Hurley-Morgan cem. in Putnam Co. Mo list dates. Says no stone. Dale Walker says she was buried Hatfield cem, Schuyler Co. MO. Book "Putnam Co MO Early Pioneers" Vol 1 by Sarah Leman Phillips has Hurley- Morgan cemetery listed in Putnam Co. T-64 R-17 S-24. Listing Sumpters, Cains, Hurleys and Morgans so maybe the cemetery had several different names.
PARENTS: Info from other researchers and family.
CHILDREN: IGI files from Salt Lake City library listed son Joseph Sumpter born to Rebecca Mullenix and John Sumpter 1840 but no one else has him listed. What happened to him?
Find A Grave internet site listed Birth 28 Jun 1814 (others listed 1813), Wayne Co. KY., death 1 Apr 1886, Putnam Co. MO. Wife of 1. John David Sumpter and 2. Redmon O.H. Logsdon md 1863., Mother of Malinda Jane Cain and Armilda, 2 of 13 children Rebecca and John had. Her parents Jesse Mullinix 1789-1860 and Elizabeth Sarah Wright 1795-1877. Listed 1 child James E. Sumpter 1838-1914 of the 13 they had and 6 siblings with birth and death dates. Pic of Hurley cemetery, hand carved name of Hurley at entrance I suppose. There is quite a write up about her as well.. 1880 census listed as living with her dau Rebecca. Rebecca also had a brother, Evans Preston Mullenix who md Mary Polly Dickerson and is living not far from the Sumpters in the Putnam Co. MO. 1850 census and also near his brother, James Lemuel Mulinax/Mullenax/Mulleneau. The Mullineaux family were originally Frence Huguenots. (provided by Janine T.) First I had heard of this-GLT). Rebecca and John had 13 children. Most of them, except after born children Mary (Vogal); John Jr, and Armilda (Hart) are listed in the Putnam Co. MO 1850 census. John left Rebecca soon after his daughter Missouri Ellen was born of his sweet-young-thing, Mary Ann Lawson-OLiford, and htey went (ran off) south to Newton Co. AR and begat another family of 10 or so kids. John was father in law to Mary Ann's sister, Elizabeth Lawson Sumpter (Mrs James Evans Sumpter).
John Sr. was the great-nephew to General Thomas Sumpter/Sumter of Revolutionary War Fame. The general dropped the "p" from his name when he moved to SC. The General was once an Indian Agent to the Cherokees and at that time he spelled his surname with the "P".
Burial here listed Putnam Co. MO, Hurley Cemetery (gather was Hurley-Morgan cem at one time) (copy) Interesting family. John was with her in 1850 census but 1860 which is probably why the family though he had died-GLT) Not sure she md a Logsdon 1863, but if did was buried as Rebecca Sumpter.
Which child of John and Rebecca's was Missouri Ellen as assume she would be last child but have 13 listed and no

CHILD 3 - Amy Ann Mullinix

BIRTH: Info from Dale Walker, census info, obit. Even though the obit says she was born in Sep 1809, all census and family say she was born 1814. Her parents weren't married until 1810 so really think the 1809 date is wrong. Maybe they wanted her closer to age 100 then she actually was!

Logically she was prob. born 1814 which would make her 21 when md in 1835 and her last child born 1853 when she was 39. If born 1809 whe would have been age 44 when last child born. Possible but didn't happen real often.

MARRIAGE: Recorded at Randolph Co. MO.

DEATH: Info from obit researched at Columbia,MO Nov 1987 from "Bevier Appeal" Bevier, MO Fri. 29 Jan 1909: "Death of Mrs A. Gilstrap was Nearly 100 Years Old, Mrs Amy Gilstrap, widow of Peter Gilstrap died Monday January 25, 1909 at the home of her son Lewis Gilstrap two and a half miles south of Bevier.--- Mrs Gilstrap was one of the pioneer residents of Macon Co. and had lived in Bevier Township nearly seventy years. She was a native of Kentucky and was born in that state in Sep 1809 and was 99 years and 4 months old. She came to Mo and settled on a farm in this township in 1840 and had lived here ever since.--- Her health had been good up to within the last couple of years and hopes had been enterained that she would live to reach the century mark. Her long life had been one of the usefullness and activity and she possessed strong individuality and her experiences of customs, incidents and happenings of pioneer life in the long ago were very interesting.--- A large family had been reared by her and she is survived by four sons: T.M., A.B., Lewis and George A. Gilstrap and one daughter Mrs Manse Garrett and also a large number of grandchildren and other relatives. The funeral took place Wednesday and was a very large one. The remains were laid to rest at the Antioch church Cemetery.

Find A Grave internet site listed birth and death dates and places of Frederick, 2 spouses and a picture of he and his first wife when they were elderly. Possibly pic of wife was the 2nd one but is with info from Frederick and wife Sarah so not sure which wife it is. Frederick died 1900 and he looks elderly in the pic. (copy) Sarah d. 1864 and Margaret died 1910 (so would suspect was 2nd wife the picture was of?)

MARRIAGE1: Recorded Randolph Co. MO and have copy.

e-mail from Bruce Davey May 2006 listed a son James b. 1850. If they had a son, he had died by 1860 as no son listed in census but could have as a gap between children b. 1847 & 1852.

MARRIAGE2: Recorded Putnam Co. MO Book 1 pg 333. also have copy.

DEATH: Cemetery stone and obituary list date and place. Obit from Kirksville Democrat 9 Feb 1900 of which I have a copy. Have taken pictures of cemetery stones in the Miller Family Cemetery located on old Miller farm in Sec 21 Twp. 64 Rg 16 in Adair Co. MO. Also Adair Co. Mo Cemeteries pub. 1981 has listing of Miller Family Cem. I was at the farm once owned by Frederick W. Miller and took pictures of all the stones there (several missing) and talked to the owners living there now and they said the cemetery had been kept up by a relative but hadn't been there lately. This was Jun 1984. The cemetery set upon a hill north of the new house in a wooded area. This was located near the Adair and Putnam Co. line just north of Blackbird Creek on a gravel road that runs east and west.

Adair and Schuyler Co. Court house's were checked for a will or probate record or inventory of farm but nothing was located.

An article from the Putnam Co. History on Mullanix Settlement stated that Frederick settled there with Jesse Mullanix first, before going to Adair Co.

OBITUARY OF FREDERICK MILLER: Kirksville Democrat 9 Feb 1900. Researched at Columbia, MO May 1986 and located obit.

"Shibley's Point: "Uncle" Fredrick Miller as he was familiarly called, is dead. Frederick Miller was born in Kentucky April 7, 1817, came to Randolph Co. this state when 17 and remained there 14 years, he then came to Nineveh Twp. this county and took a claim where he lived until about one year ago when he moved to Queen City, where he lived until his death January 28, 1900. He was 82 years 9 months and 10 days old.

He was married twice. To the first wife 3 sons and 4 daughters were born, of which only 2 sons are living. To the second wife (still living) one son and 3 daughters were born, all of whom are living. Mr Miller was a Democrat all his life and went to the polls at the last election. He was in fair circumstances and gave much alms to the poor. His memory will be cherished."

1910 Margaret died Oct and census of Schuyler Co. MO taken Apr, but she wasn't located. Her brother Bates S. Collins and daughter were there.

History of Adair, Sullivan, Schuyler & Putnam Co. MO pub 1888, refers to Fred.

Pg 426: The Mullenix Settlement: In Putnam Co. Mo was in the Southeast part off the county on the Chariton River. Jesse Mullenix settled there in 1838 having come from Howard Co. MO. Frederick Miller his son in law and Johnson Wright his brother in law coming about the same time. (Frederick & Sarah didn't marry until 1839 and was Macon Co census 1840 so this date maybe off some)

Pg 430: May 22, 1847 Frederick Miller bought the South half of SW quarter of Sec 14, Twp. 65 Rg 17 (Putnam Co. MO).

LAND RECORDS OF RANDOLPH CO MO.

(There are probably many more land records in Randolph, Macon, Adair and Putnam Co. that haven't been checked to date).

DAR membership papers of Dorothea Louise Richardson Montgomery Arnold who went in to DAR on Frederick Miller has listed info on Frederick, Jesse, Frederick Wilson Miller. Frederick Wilson Miller b. 7 Apr 1817 Wayne Co. KY died 29 Jan 1900 Adair Co. MO md 15 May 1834 Randolph Co. MO md Sarah Mulinix.

WIFE - Sarah "Sally" Elizabeth Mulinix *

All the complete info on their children are in the Miller Family Books.

Stone days died 25 Aug 1864 age 42 yrs (can't make out anything else). Which would make her born ca 1822 and not 1824.

HUSBAND -- Johnson Wright Minister

*Find A Grave internet site listed birth and death dates of Johnson Wright, pic of his grave stone and would appear to be on the family farm, Wright Cemetery, Randolph Co. as other pic looks like it could be family cem. Parents: Evans C. Wright 1762-1846 and Rebecca Summers 1774-1862.

Spouse 1st wife: Elizabeth MmcCollum whom had 4 children and 2nd wife Eliza Jane Trimble 1819-1888 and had 10 children, 8 whom are still living. He listed 10 children with dates and 8 siblings with dates. (copy)

Daughter Melissa V. Salmon history said her father was johnson Wright, a Virginian by birth and a Methodist Minister. He served as an assemblyman in MO and on one of his trips home from the legislature, arrived leading his horse which had three rocking-chairs strapped to its back. These were a present to his wife, as that kind of a chair was a rarity in that section. Mrs Bee Compton has one of those chairs. (written about 1898). mem #32340240

BIRTH: Family and Descendants of Wrights & Mulanix families. Also census rec.

MARRIAGE1: Recorded Wayne Co. KY. Bondsman: Isaac McCollom and Wit: Jesse McCollom. Also printed in the book "Marriages of Wayne Co. KY 1801-1860 by Nutter pub. 1972 pg 116.

MARRIAGE2: Recorded Randolph Co. MO. dated Feb 1840. (another date from another source stated 9 Aug 1850 which was wrong).

DEATH: Johnson Wrights administration document was recorded at Moberly, Randolph Co. MO 1867 Bk 1 pg 1161. (don't have copy). Another document ther dated 1869 Book 1 pg 1256: Guardian for Anomynous E., Ann E, Italy A, Samuel W. and Malta J. appointed for minors.

CHILDREN: It appears Johnson had four children by first wife and 10 by 2nd wife. He may have had more but these are all that are known. Sources vary on this. Seems possible two of the children by the first marriage died in infancy?

Johnson was a Preacher of the Gospel and farmer. (Methodist Minister)

Pg 148 Chapter VI Chariton Twp: States "Johnson Wright was one of the most eccentric men that ever lived in the township. He was at first a minister of the gospel, but did not entirely agree in doctrine with any religious denomination, and we doubt if he ever belonged to any church. He sold his farm in Chariton Twp. in 1837 and moved to Macon, which county he soon represented in the State Legislature. He ws in the habit of doing some things, which, although not considered immoral in themselves, were nevertheless thought to be unbecoming the character of a minister of the gospel. But he always justified himself by quootaations from the scriptures, and by citing the example of some old patriarch who indulged in the same practices. Among other things, he was very fond of the game of euchre, and claimed that this, his favorite amusement, had the divine sanction, because he had seen the word "Eucharist" in the Bible. He returned to Chariton Twp. in 1847, where he lived until his death, some years after. Towards the latter part of his life some of his eccentricities were so absurd that most of his acquaintances considered him insane. He voted at the August election of 1850 at Huntsville, but his ballot contained only the name of "Jesus Christ for the office of head of the Church". When it was suggested to him that Christ had been elected to that office over 1800 years ago, his reply was: "Well, if it has been that long it is time he was e-elected." His erratic notions on religious subjects culminated before his death in his deeding his farm to Christ, upon the fancied consideration, no doubt, that he would be granted an equivalent interest in the happy land of Canaan. He was, withal, one of the kindest of men and had the friendship and regard of all who knew him. He was several times married, and raised quite a family of children, some of whom and his widow, we believe, still live in Chariton township." Apparently who wrote this knew Johnson Wright. On the east side of Darks' Prairie, south and east of the present site of Darksville (1832) Johnson Wright and others were living. Pg 239 Chapter XIII: 1861 Robert Trimble an aged man of 75 or 80 was found hanging from a tree on the farm of Mr Baker. He was the father of Eliza J. Trimble Wright and was living with her at the time. Preston Wright, E.H. Trimble and George W. Chapman found him. Pg 642 Chariton Twp: Biograph on Eliza Jane Wright, widow of Johnson Wright stats dau of Robert & Elizabeth Trimble, natives of KY. Mr Wright died 1867 with 10 children, 9 living.

We only have two children listed for her, but could have been more as they were listed as having 3 sons in 1830 and had one dau 1834. Two of the sons names not know and maybe the one son was Evan b. 1828. It is believed that the dau was Mary who md Mr McDaniels or Malissa b. 1834 who md William G. Patrick 1850 Randolph Co. MO? Some sources had listed Malissa as dau and family group sheet located at the Moberly, MO library Oct 1998 listed Mary who md Mr McDaniels as dau? Their marriage was recorded in Wayne Co. KY 1817. According to last signed land records she was living in Aug 1839 so probably was deceased shortly after that. There were land records where Elizabeth probably signed in Randolph Co. MO before 1840. Land records as late as 1839 listed Johnson & wife selling land and then by 1840 he was married to Eliza Jane. 1820 prob. in Wayne Co. KY but have not located them. 1830 Randolph Co. He was an Independent candidate for Assembly in 1859 and his addresses to the people on that occasion contained much more sound sense and reasoning then the flowery domagoguelisnius of more successful aspirants." HUSBAND - Johnson Wright Minister

*Find A Grave internet site listed birth and death dates of Johnson Wright, pic of his grave stone and would appear to be on the family farm, Wright Cemetery, Randolph Co. as other pic looks like it could be family cem. Parents: Evans C. Wright 1762-1846 and Rebecca Summers 1774-1862.

Spouse 1st wife: Elizabeth MmcCollum whom had 4 children and 2nd wife Eliza Jane Trimble 1819-1888 and had 10 children, 8 whom are still living. He listed 10 children with dates and 8 siblings with dates. (copy)

Daughter Melissa V. Salmon history said her father was Johnson Wright, a Virginian by birth and a Methodist Minister. He served as an assemblyman in MO and on one of his trips home from the legislature, arrived leading his horse which had three rocking-chairs strapped to its back. These were a present to his wife, as that kind of a chair was a rarity in that section. Mrs Bee Compton has one of those chairs. (written about 1898). mem #32340240

BIRTH: Family and Descendants of Wrights & Mulanix families. Also census rec.

MARRIAGE1: Recorded Wayne Co. KY. Bondsman: Isaac McCollom and Wit: Jesse McCollom. Also printed in the book "Marriages of Wayne Co. KY 1801-1860 by Nutter pub. 1972 pg 116.

MARRIAGE2: Recorded Randolph Co. MO. dated Feb 1840. (another date from another source stated 9 Aug 1850 which was wrong).

DEATH: Johnson Wrights administration document was recorded at Moberly, Randolph Co. MO 1867 Bk 1 pg 1161. (don't have copy). Another document ther dated 1869 Book 1 pg 1256: Guardian for Anomynous E., Ann E, Italy A, Samuel W. and Malta J. appointed for minors.

CHILDREN: It appears Johnson had four children by first wife and 10 by 2nd wife. He may have had more but these are all that are known. Sources vary on this. Seems possible two of the children by the first marriage died in infancy?

Johnson was a Preacher of the Gospel and farmer. (Methodist Minister)

Husband	Johnson Wright Minister
Wife	Eliza Jane Trimble
Notes HUSBAND - Johnson Wright Minister (Continued) over 1800 years ago, his reply was: "Well, if it has been that long it is time he was e-elected." His erratic notions on religious subjects culminated before his death in his deeding his farm to Christ, upon the fancied consideration, no doubt, that he would be granted an equivalent interest in the happy land of Canaan. He was, withal, one of the kindest of men and had the friendship and regard of all who knew him. He was several times married, and raised quite a family of children, some of whom and his widow, we believe, still live in Chariton township." Apparently who wrote this knew Johnson Wright. On the east side of Darks' Prairie, south and east of the present site of Darksville (1832) Johnson Wright and others were living. Pg 239 Chapter XIII: 1861 Robert Trimble an aged man of 75 or 80 was found hanging from a tree on the farm of Mr Baker. He was the father of Eliza J. Trimble Wright and was living with her at the time. Preston Wright, E.H. Trimble and George W. Chapman found him. Pg 642 Chariton Twp: Biograph on Eliza Jane Wright, widow of Johnson Wright stats dau of Robert & Elizabeth Trimble, natives of KY. Mr Wright died 1867 with 10 children, 9 living. "Atlas of Macon Co. MO 1875" pg 57: 1834-1844 Listed Evans Wright Sr, Summers Wright, Johnson Wright and Bennet C. Wright living there. "Marriage Records of Macon Co. MO" by Ellsberry stated Allen Wright NC, John Wright, M.G. wife Elizabeth Jane b. 1 Feb 1819 Mt Sterling, IL, died 20 May 1888 Darksville. Johnson died 21 Apr 1867 left 10 children. Family group sheet located at the Moberly, MO library Oct 1998 has much the same info as other sources but some differences. WIFE - Eliza Jane Trimble *Find A Grave internet site listed birth and death dates., pic of her gravemarker. Parents: Robert Trimble 1793-1869 and Elizabeth Young 1796-1845. Spouse: Johnson Wright 1798-1867 Listed 8 children and 6 siblings with dates. Short Obit: Mrs Eliza J. Wright died at the residence of her son in law J.T. Martin, 20 May. She was born in KY 1 Feb 1819. When she was about 16 years of age she came to Randolph Co. MO with her father, the late Robert Trimble. 20 Feb 1840 she was married to the late Johnson Wright. Their union was blessed by 10 children, 8 of whom are still living. Huntsville Herald, Thursday, Jun 14, 1888 (copy) BIRTH: Birth date was stated in History of Randolph Co. MO 1884 and census records list age. MARRIAGE: Was recorded Randolph Co. MO in 1840. Although one source says md 9 Aug 1850, their children were born way before that so know that date is not right and their licence was dated 1840. DEATH: The 1910 Macon Co. MO history stated Eliza died 1888 and the marriage record book of Macon Co. Mo by Ellsberry stated she died 20 May 1888 Darksville, MO. and haven't checked for burial place for Johnson or Eliza to date. 1840 Macon Co. MO census listed Johnson Wright with female 20/30. 1850 Randolph Co. MO Eliza age 47 Ky with husband and children. 1860 Randolph Co. "This very superior lady was born February 1, 1819, in Montgomery county, KY, of Robert and Elizabeth Trimble, both natives of the same state. Robert Trimble, her father, a farmer of State Creek, near Mount Sterling, was a man of wide reputation thrugh all the country round. The subject of this sketch grew up on the farm and in 1835 moved to Missouri with her parents, settling in Randolph county. In 1840 she married Johnson Wright, a son of Evans and Rebecca Wright, originally from Kentucky and a man of note. He held the office of Justice of the peace, and was at one time representative of the county. Mr Wright died April 21, 1867 leaving 10 children, of whom nine are living: Mary Elizabeth, now Mrs McDaniel;

Robert T, George Preston, James Allen, Non E., Italy A., Ann Eliza, now Mrs Martin; Samuel William and Inatta Jane, now Mrs Brigan. Rebecca is with her father in realms of unfading joy. Mrs Wright, who raises considerable stock, owns 260 acres of land, which is at present nearly all set in grass. So wisely and well does Mrs. W. order her affairs that it is hard to believe that the soft hand of a woman holds the reins. She has the respect and hearty admiration of all who know her. She is a member of the Christian Church."

Pg 240: When they located the body of her father Robert Trimble hanging from a tree on the farm of Mr. A.Baker and son E.H. Trimble was one who found him and said he had lived with him till 15 May 1860? and then Eliza gave her Testimony at the Inquest and stated her father had been staying with her the last two weeks and had indicated taking his life with a gun which she took away from him (article appeared in the Citizen 1861. Apparently was found in the year of 1861 but no month known to date). He was 75/80 years of age. Two miles south of Darkville, Randolph Co. MO. is where he was found. Coroner Calhoun was notified and then had an inquest to determine death was by his own hand.

According to the Old Fort Henry cemetery records, Robert M. Trimble d. 14 Aug 1863 at age 69 yrs (which would be b. 1794). His wife was listed as Elizabeth Trimble b. 5 Mar 1822 d. 2 Jan 1849, dau of Charles & Charlotte Baker. Elizabeths birth year has to be wrong as their children was being born by 1819 and 1824 according to all history info. Two other children of R & E Trimble were listed there, Miranda d. 1842 age 18 (1824) and James T. d. 1851 age 22 (1829). Only other answer was Robert had a first wife also named Elizabeth and this Elizabeth, dau of Charles & Charlotte was his 2nd wife???

tlements about the same time with Mr. Richmond. Among those who settled in his neighborhood soon after him, he remembers, Daniel Miam, John Gray, Jonathan Haynes, Thomas Brookes, John McCully and Madison Richmond. On the east side of Dark's prairie, south and east of the present site of Darksville, were living at that time (1832) Johnson Wright, John Wayne, Joseph Summers, Hodge England, and Pleasant and Nicholas Tuttle. With the last named lived their father, a very aged man and a revolutionary soldier, whom our informant remembers to have seen on election and parade days surrounded by crowds listening to his account of the part he took in the War of Independence.

One of the most eccentric men that ever lived in the township was Johnson Wright. He was at first a minister of the gospel, but did not entirely agree in doctrine with any religious denomination, and we doubt if he ever belonged to any church. He sold his farm in Charlton township in 1837, and moved to Macon, which county he soon afterward represented in the State Legislature. He was in the habit of doing some things, which, although not considered immoral in themselves, were nevertheless thought to be unbecoming the character of a minister of the gospel. But he always justified himself by quotations from the scriptures, and by citing the example of some old patriarch who indulged in the same practices. Among other things, he was very fond of the game of euchre, and claimed that this, his favorite amusement, had the divine sanction, because he had seen the word "Eucharist" in the Bible. He returned to Charlton township about the year 1847, where he lived till his death, some years after. Towards the latter part of his life some of his eccentricities were so absurd that most of his acquaintances considered him insane. He voted at the August election of 1850 at Huntsville, but his ballot contained only the name of "Jesus Christ for the office of Head of the Church." When it was suggested to him that Christ had been elected to that office over 1800 years ago, his reply was: "Well, if it has been that long it is time he was re-elected." His erratic notions on religious subjects culminated before his death in his deeding his farm to Christ (see deed in Chapter III.), upon the fancied consideration, no doubt, that he would be granted an equivalent interest in the happy land of Canaan. He was, withal, one of the kindest of men, and had the friendship and regard of all who knew him. He was several times married, and raised quite a family of children, some of whom and his widow, we believe, still live in Charlton township.

Among the strongest minded and most influential men of his day in that township was John M. Yates. He immigrated from Kentucky to Randolph county about 40 years ago, and after living a year or two in the southern part of the county, settled on Dark's prairie about the year 1835, and died on a farm adjoining the one he first settled in the year 1872. He was twice married and raised 15 children, 13 of his own and 2 step-daughters. Most of them are still living in this and adjoining counties, among whom we can mention Mrs. George Chapman and Mrs. Hugh Trimble, of Dark's prairie; Mrs. John S. McCaune and Dr. Paul Yates, of Jacksonville; Mrs. Elijah Turner and Dr. William Yates, of Macon county, and Mrs. W. T. McCaune, of Moberly.

Mr. Yates was an uncle of the celebrated Richard Yates, once Governor of Illinois and U. S. Senator from that State, and was himself a man of much more than ordinary intelligence and soundness of judgment. Had he turned his attention to public life in his early manhood, and pursued it with the energy necessary to bringing out his great natural capabilities, he would have equaled, if not surpassed in eminence, his distinguished relative.

Judge William A. Hall was born and partly raised in the State of Maine. His father having been appointed to a position in the U. S. army at Harper's Ferry, Va., he moved with his parents to that place, and when they moved to Charlton township, about the year 1839, he soon followed them, being then a young man nearly 25 years of age. About that time his father died, and he made his home with his widowed mother, although he kept his law office in Fayette, Mo., and for a short time edited a Democratic paper in that place. He made regular visits to his mother's home in Charlton county whenever his professional duties would permit, and very often walked the entire distance of over thirty miles. He rapidly advanced to the front rank in his profession, and on the death of Judge Ireland, which occurred about the year 1846, he was appointed by the Governor judge of this judicial circuit, a position to which he was continuously re-elected until 1861, when he was elected to represent the district of which Randolph was a part, in the U. S. Congress. About the time he was first appointed judge, he was married to Miss Octavia Sebre, a niece and adopted daughter of Uriel Sebre, a prominent citizen of Howard county. Soon after his marriage he settled on his farm, now known as the Broadbush farm, in Charlton township, where he remained until he removed to Huntsville in 1861, and the following year to a farm near that place.

REMARKABLE DEED.

There is perhaps nothing in all the written records of this, or any other State in the Union, among all the recorded acts of men, that reads so strangely as the following deed, the grantee being no less a person than God, the Supreme Being.

This indenture made and entered into this sixth day of June, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and fifty, between Johnson Wright, and Eliza Jane his wife, of the county of Randolph, and the State of Missouri of the first part, and the government the chief administrator, King of Righteousness, the Sun, the Fountain of Life, to the General Assembly and church of the first born, which are written in Heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect, and to Jesus, Mediator of the New Covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling that speaketh better things than that of Abel, because he died for us—being in the county of Randolph and State of Missouri, to wit: The following tracts of land—the south-west qr. of the N. W. qr., also the north half of the south-west quarter twenty-eight, township fifty-six, range and to hold and its appurtenances thereto, and everything wherein there is breath or life. The first party, their heirs and assigns, do warrant and defend the title of said land, unto the second party, which is the Sun of Life, free and clear from all other claims by or through us or any other persons.

In testimony whereunto, we, Johnson Wright and Eliza Jane, have hereunto set our hands and seals the day and year above written.

JOHNSON WRIGHT, { SEAL }

ELIZA JANE WRIGHT. { SEAL }

The above instrument was acknowledged and may be found recorded in book "H" of the circuit court office of Randolph county.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS.

Notwithstanding the fact that a large number, probably a majority of people in every county, have very little practical experience in courts, and although they have the legal capacity to sue and be sued, never improve their opportunities, and never appear in court, unless it be on compulsion as witnesses and jurors; yet, as the one great conservator of peace, and as the final arbiter in case of individual or neighborhood disputes, the court is distinguished above and apart from all and every other institution in the land, and not only the proceedings of the court, but the place of holding court, is a matter of interest to the average reader.

Not only so, but in many counties the court-house was the first, and usually the only public building in the county. The first court-houses were not very elaborate buildings, to be sure, but they are enshrined in memories that the present can never know.

Their uses were general rather than special, and so constantly were they in use, day and night, when the court was in session, and when it was not in session, for judicial, educational, religious and social purposes, that the doors of the old court-houses, like the gates of gospel grace, stood open night and day; and the small amount invested in these old hewn logs and rough benches returned a much better rate of interest on the investment than do those stately piles of brick or granite, which have taken their places. The memorable court-house of early times was a house adapted to a variety of purposes, and had a career of great usefulness. School was taught, the Gospel was preached, and justice dispensed within its substantial walls. Then it served frequently as a resting place for weary travelers. And, indeed, its doors always swung on easy hinges. If the old settlers are to be believed, all the old court-houses, when first erected in this Western country, often rang on the pioneer Sabbath with a more stirring eloquence than that which enlivens the pulpit of the present time. Many of the earliest ministers officiated in their walls, and if they could but speak, they would doubtless tell many a strange tale of pioneer religion that is now lost forever.

To those old court-houses, ministers came of different faiths, but all eager to expound the simple truths of the sublime and beautiful religion, and point out for comparisons the thorny path of duty, and the primrose way of dalliance. Often have those old walls given back the echoes of those who have sung the songs of Zion, and many a weary wanderer has had his heart moved to repentance thereby, more strongly than ever, by the strains of homely eloquence. With Monday morning, the old building changed in character, and men went thither, seeking not the justice of God, but the mercy of man. The scales were held with an even hand. Those who presided knew every man in the county, and they dealt out substantial justice, and the broad principles of natural equity prevailed. Children went there to school, and sat at the feet of teachers who knew little more than themselves; but, however humble the teacher's acquisitions, he was

Coroner Calloun, on being notified of the sad occurrence, promptly repaired to the scene Sunday morning, and proceeded to hold an inquest. The verdict rendered was, in substance, that the deceased came to his death by his own act by hanging. We append the testimony elicited at the inquest, from which it will be seen that the old gentleman had been laboring under some mental derangement, superinduced, perhaps, by a severe chronic affliction, and had repeatedly meditated self-destruction before the rash act was finally consummated. It is truly a melancholy affair, and the surviving relatives have our deepest sympathy in their great sorrow.

TESTIMONY AT THE INQUEST.

G. W. Chapman, of lawful age, being sworn, said: I went with Mr. Trimble, Mr. Waters and Mrs. Wright to hunt Mr. Robert Trimble. We found him in a branch on the farm of Mr. A. Baker; found him dead with a rope around his neck, and attached to a limb above his head; appeared to have been strangled to death; we found him on his knees; no marks of violence perceivable; I think he came to his death by the rope; it was tight around his neck; I helped to take the body down, and helped to bring him to Mrs. Wright's house.

E. Waters, of lawful age, being duly sworn, said: I was out on the hunt of Mr. Trimble with Preston Wright, E. H. Trimble and George W. Chapman. We found him in a branch in A. Baker's field; he was hanging on a limb; I helped to take him down and put him in a wagon.

E. H. Trimble, of lawful age, being duly sworn, said: My father has been suffering for some years with chronic diarrhoea, and for the last five or six months has shown repeated signs of a deranged mind, more especially in regard to his financial matters. He has lived with me the greater portion of the time since the 15th of May, and on several occasions has talked of putting an end to himself, which gave me a great deal of uneasiness when he was not in my sight. I was with E. Waters, Preston Wright and George W. Chapman. We found him suspended to a limb by a rope around his neck, to a hurr oak tree in a small ravine, in A. Baker's field. I have no doubt but that he came to his death at his own hands. I was present when he was removed. I never knew him to attempt to commit suicide before. There were no other tracks discernable about where he was hung. We found him by his tracks.

Mrs. Eliza J. Wright, being of lawful age, and duly sworn, said: My father has been staying with me for the last two weeks. I heard him say several times that he wished he was dead, and that he thought it best to kill himself. Last Wednesday morning he went up stairs and got his pistol and stepped out, and I went up stairs to see if his pistol was gone, and found it was. I saw him up in the field, and I ran and called him, and he answered. I managed to get the pistol away, and locked it up. He slipped out yesterday a little after three o'clock. I was not uneasy as I knew he had no weapons. I never thought about a rope. They all hunted, and reported his absence until about twelve o'clock last night. I went with them to fetch him home after they had found him. He did not say what he was going to do with his pistol, but I believe that he was going to kill himself, and if I had not run and called him, I believe that he would have performed the deed then. I have reason to believe he wanted to kill himself. He showed no sign of self-destruction yesterday until he was missing. I have been watching him heretofore, suspecting that he wanted to kill himself, and I believe he came to his death of his own accord.

A MAN SHOT AND KILLED NEAR MOBERTY.

[From the Citizen.]

On Sunday morning last, 1869, near the residence of John A. McDaniel, Esq., in the neighborhood of Moberty, in this county, John Duggan, a laborer on the Hannibal and Moberty Railroad, came to his death under the following circumstances: He had been loitering around Mr. McDaniel's house for several days, apparently crazy, and on Sunday morning his movements were such as to occasion some alarm, and Mr. McD. determined to have him arrested, and started to Moberty for an officer, charging his sons (two little boys) to keep a watch upon Duggan until his return with the officer. The boys went to a neighbor's house and called upon George Boyd, a young man employed in the neighborhood, to come and assist them, telling him to bring a gun, as it might be needed to defend themselves. The boys returned, when Duggan made for them with a stick. The boys ran (McDaniel's sons in front), and Boyd, with his gun, between them and Duggan. The latter continued to gain upon them, when Boyd stopped, and after repeatedly halting Duggan and warning him that he would hurt him, fired upon him, the shot taking fatal effect. Mr. McDaniel heard the report of the gun, when about a half mile on his way, and returned to find Duggan dead. Coroner Calloun, of this place, was sent for to hold an inquest, by which these facts were elicited. Boyd surrendered himself to a justice of the peace at Moberty and was discharged. Duggan is said to have been indulging strongly in liquor for several days, and his insanity was attributable to this cause. It is reported he leaves a family in St. Louis.

A MURDER.

EDITOR CITIZEN: I feel it a duty I owe to the citizens of Randolph, and perhaps kindred and friends, to give an account of such a scene of horror as never occurred before in our community, to my recollection.

On the 22d of May, 1870, a man was found dead in the neighborhood of Mrs. Betsy Elliott's, in this county. The way in which he was discovered was by the stench that came from his body. Two of Mrs. Elliott's sons walked out from the house to see about something married to Miss Florence B. Twyman, a daughter of William and Mary A. Twyman, of Chariton county. Mr. and Mrs. Wrenn have a family of six children: Frankie, John W., James E., Mary E. and Mable E. Mr. Wrenn owns his business house at Thomas Hill, and now has five men in employ in his stores. He is postmaster at Thomas Hill.

ELIZA-JANE WRIGHT

(Widow).

This very superior lady was born February 1, 1819, in Montgomery county, Ky., of Robert and Elizabeth Trimble, both natives of the same State. Robert Trimble, her father, a farmer of State Creek, near Mount Sterling, was a man of wide reputation through all the country round. The subject of this sketch grew up on the farm, and in 1835 moved to Missouri with her parents, settling in Randolph county. In 1840 she married Johnson Wright, a son of Evans and Rebecca Wright, originally from Kentucky and a man of note. He held the office of justice of the peace, and was at one time representative of the county. Mr. Wright died April 21, 1867, leaving 10 children, of whom nine are living: Mary Elizabeth, now Mrs. McDaniel; Robert T., George Preston, James Allen, Non E., Italy A., Ann Eliza, now Mrs. Martin; Samuel William and Innata Jane, now Mrs. Biggan. Rebecca is with her father in realms of unending joy. Mrs. Wright, who raises considerable stock, owns 260 acres of land, which is at present nearly all set in grass. So wisely and well does Mrs. W. order her affairs that it is hard to believe that the soft hand of a woman holds the reins. She has the respect and hearty admiration of all who know her. She is a member of the Christian Church.

CAIRO TOWNSHIP.

ANDREW J. AMICK

(Farmer and Stock-raiser).

Mr. Amick comes of two intelligent and highly respected families, the Amicks, of North Carolina, and the Kingsburys, of New York. His father, Capt. George Amick, was a native of the old North State, and commanded a company of volunteers in the American army in the War of 1812. He subsequently became one of the pioneer settlers of Howard county, going there in 1820, and for a time, on account of Indian difficulties, was compelled to make his home in Fort Hempstead. He soon met and married Miss Amy Kingsbury, of the family which occupies so conspicuous and enviable a position in the "History of Howard County," recently published. In 1837 he came to Randolph county, settling near Moberly, where he lived until his death, which occurred in October, 1847. His wife survived him up to August, 1873, dying in Moberly at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. David Burberry. Both parents were members of the Baptist Church. Of their family of five sons and five daughters, but half are now living. Andrew J. Amick was born in Howard county, near Boonsboro, December 15, 1829, and was therefore mainly reared in Randolph county, his parents having come here eight years after his birth. On the 20th of October, 1852, he was married to Miss Anna Deter. There are six children, the fruits of this union: Fannie J., now Mrs. James M. Vinee; George L., now of Cairo, Mo.; Jesse J., now of Kansas; Edwin A. J., now also of Kansas; John W., now of New Mexico; and Arthur B., now a student of Fayette, Howard county. The mother of these died April 3, 1867. Mr. Amick was a second time married on the 4th of September, 1867, when Miss Elizabeth Nichols became his wife. She survived her marriage, however, only a few years, dying December 19, 1870. To his present wife Mr. Amick was married August 10, 1873. Previous to her marriage to him she was a Mrs. Catherine Thomas, a widow of Hiram Thomas, late of Cass county. They have four children: Nina G., James Forrest, Alice Z. and Olive. Mr. Amick has made farming his occupation for life, and also handles considerable stock. He raises annually about 200 acres of grain, and markets about 50 head of cattle and hogs. Like his father before him, he is a successful farmer and stock-raiser. His father, as all old citizens know, was in his time one of the leading farmers and stock-raisers of the county. Mr. and Mrs. Amick are members of the Christian Church.

WILLIAM M. BAKER

(Farmer, and Owner of Pleasant Home Farm).

One of the first colony of pioneers who settled in Randolph county is still living, the father of the subject of this sketch, Isaac Baker, a venerable old gentleman, now long past the age of four-score years, and for 65 years a resident of this county. This white-haired and honored old patriarch, for he is the founder of a large family of children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, is still well-pleased, considering his great age and the life of toil and usefulness he has led, his step being as firm and his conversation as bright as are those usually of men 14 years his junior. His good wife, whose maiden name was Jane McCulley, and originally of Middle Tennessee, died at the age of 68, 13 years ago. He was born in Madison county, Ky., May 11, 1802, and came to Missouri when a youth 16 years of age, in 1818, with his father's family, locating with the family in Howard county. However, the family had first moved to Kentucky, and from there came out to Missouri. The following year Isaac Baker came over into Randolph county, and has made this county his home from that day to this. Four years after coming to Randolph, he was married to the good woman whose death has been mentioned above, and with whom, had she survived two years longer, he would have celebrated his golden wedding, or a happy married life

HUSBAND Robert TRIMBLE-905

NOTES:

BIRTH, DEATH, BURIAL: According to Old Fort Henry cemetery records Robert Trimble d. 14 Aug 1869 at the age of 75-10-14. Which was much later then History said. This would make his birth 1794. His birth calculated according to death date would be 30 Sep 1793.

MARRIAGE: Was he married twice? One wife, Elizabeth was said to be native of KY as he was, then cemetery records listed one Elizabeth b. 5 Mar 1822 d. 2 Jan 1849, wife of R.M. Trimble, dau of Charles and Charlotte Baker (Charles b. 1794). Robert and Elizabeth had children born 1819, 1822, 1824 and 1829 according to cemetery records, which sure don't fit Elizabeths birth and according to fathers birth her birth of 1822 could be correct, which would sure make her a 2nd wife.

DO WE HAVE TWO ROBERT TRIMBLES WHO MD ELIZABETH (?) OR ONE ROBERT WHO MD 2 DIFFERENT ELIZABETH'S?

Robert Trimble was found hanging from a tree sometime in 1861 at the age of 75/80 years. According to History of Randolph Co. MO. Where testimony was given at the inquest to determine if was by his own hand. Which it was.

He had stayed at his son E.H. Trimble till May (1860?61) then was at daughter Eliza Jane Wrights two weeks before his death. Had been despondant and not in the best of health his son had said. He was found on the farm of Mr. A. Baker about two miles south of Darkville, Randolph Co. MO by his son E.H. and others. The article was in the Citizen (presume a newspaper from Darksville, MO?)

History of Randolph Co. MO pg 642 has a bio of Eliza Jane Wright and stated she was a daughter of Robert and Elizabeth Trimble, both natives of KY. Robert was farmer of State Creek, near Mount Sterling, was a man of wide reputation through all the country round. 1835 they moved to Missouri where her parents settled in Randolph Co. (Mt Sterling maybe be in ILL).

There was one land record I happen to run across from Randolph Co. MO.

Robert Trimble 16 Nov 1837 #16,245 1.25 an acre for 40 acres $50.00 SW 1/4 NE 1/4 Sec 21 Twp 54N Rq 15W. in Randolph Co.

1860 Macon Co. MO Callao Twp. pg 53 #386/390: Robert Trimble age 65 KY with dau Martha and husband Claibourn Wright.

According to the Old Fort Henry cemetery records, Robert M. Trimble d. 14 Aug 1863 at age 69 yrs (which would be b. 1794). His wife was listed as Elizabeth Trimble b. 5 Mar 1822 d. 2 Jan 1849, dau of Charles & Charlotte Baker. Elizabeths birth year has to be wrong, unless, as their children was being born by 1819 and 1824 according to all history info. Two other children of R & E Trimble were listed there, Miranda d. 1842 age 18 (1824) and James T. d. 1851 age 22 (1829). Only other answer was Robert had a first wife also named Elizabeth and this Elizabeth, dau of Charles & Charlotte was his 2nd wife???

WIFE Elizabeth ?UNKNOWN-906

NOTES:

Nothing to date on Elizabeth but it was inferred in county history Randolph Co. the she may have been deceased before Robert died in 1860.

Husband was with daughter and family in 1860 Macon Co. Mo census so presume she died before that.

According to the Old Fort Henry cemetery records, Robert M. Trimble d. 14 Aug 1863 at age 69 yrs (which would be b. 1794). His wife was listed as Elizabeth Trimble b. 5 Mar 1822 d. 2 Jan 1849, dau of Charles & Charlotte Baker. Elizabeths birth year has to be wrong, unless, as their children was being born by 1819 and 1824 according to all history info. BIRTH: Birth date was stated in History of Randolph Co. MO 1884 and census records list age.

MARRIAGE: Was recorded Randolph Co. MO in 1840. Although one source says md 9 Aug 1850, their children were born way before that so know that date is not right and their licence was dated 1840.

DEATH: The 1910 Macon Co. MO history stated Eliza died 1888 and the marriage record book of Macon Co. Mo by Ellsberry stated she died 20 May 1888 Darksville, MO. and haven't checked for burial place for Johnson or Eliza to date.

1840 Macon Co. MO census listed Johnson Wright with female 20/30.

Apparently was found in the year of 1861 but no month known to date). He was 75/80 years of age. Two miles south of Darkville, Randolph Co. MO. is where he was found. Coroner Calhoun was notified and then had an inquest to determine death was by his own hand.

According to the Old Fort Henry cemetery records, Robert M. Trimble d. 14 Aug 1863 at age 69 yrs (which would be b. 1794). His wife was listed as Elizabeth Trimble b. 5 Mar 1822 d. 2 Jan 1849, dau of Charles & Charlotte Baker. Elizabeths birth year has to be wrong as their children was being born by 1819 and 1824 according to all history info. Two other children of R & E Trimble were listed there, Miranda d. 1842 age 18 (1824) and James T. d. 1851 age 22 (1829). Only other answer was Robert had a first wife also named Elizabeth and this Elizabeth, dau of Charles & Charlotte was his 2nd wife???

DEATH OF MAJOR WRIGHT.—Major Thos S. Wright, a Pioneer in Butte county, died at his residence, in Chico township, on Wednesday last, of pneumonia and typhoid fever. He was a man of somewhat eccentric opinions and great oddity of expression, but withal a man of great sense and varied information, kind-hearted, and a good citizen and neighbor. He was an independent candidate for Assembly in 1859, and his addresses to the people on that occasion, contained much more sound sense and reasoning than the flowery demagogueries of more successful aspirants. He has done much to improve and build up his section, and to develop the agricultural interests of the county. He will be remembered with gratitude by many, as a man whose hand was always open to relieve the sufferings of the weary and unfortunate. "May he rest in peace."

Melissa Virginia Wright Patrick Salmon

Birth: Apr. 11, 1831
Death: Dec. 1, 1898

MRS. MELISSA PATRICK SALMON.--In an early period of the history of Butte County, Mrs. Melissa V. Patrick Salmon became identified with the development of that section lying south from what is now the city of Chico. She was born in Randolph County, Mo., April 11, 1831, a daughter of Johnson Wright, a Virginian by birth and a Methodist minister. He served as an assemblyman in Missouri and, on one of his trips home from the legislature, arrived leading his horse which had three rocking-chairs strapped to its back. These were a present to his wife, as that kind of a chair was a rarity in that section. Mrs. Bee Compton of Chico has one of those chairs. Mrs. Patrick Salmon's grandfather, Evans Wright, was born in England and came to America prior to the Revolutionary War and settled in Virginia. Her father married Elizabeth McCullom, a native of Kentucky, and their union was blessed with four children, of whom Melissa Virginia was the youngest.

Upon arriving in this state they came to Butte County and settled on a quarter section of land two and one half miles southwest of what is now the city of Chico. These were a present to his wife, as that kind of a chair was a rarity in that section. Mrs. Rose Compton of Chico has one of those chairs. Mrs. Patrick Salmon's grandfather, Evans Wright, was born in England and came to America prior to the Revolutionary War and settled in Virginia. Her father married Elizabeth McCullum, a native of Kentucky, and their union was blessed with four children, of whom Melissa Virginia was the youngest.

United States Government to Mr. Wright and his heirs. Mr. Wright died on December 9, 1863, and Mr. Patrick was appointed administrator of the estate. The legal requirements to secure clear title to the land had not been completed at the time of the death of Mr. Wright, and Mr. Patrick carried the matter along, and when he died it devolved upon his widow to finish the transaction whereby she could get title to the property. This she did, with the aid of General Bidwell (through long years a friend of Squire Wright), who gladly assisted her in securing the government patent to the land.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick settled down in their new home and farmed very successfully, and by dint of hard work and good management they began to buy land. In 1866 Mr. Patrick made a trip back to Missouri after stock and was accompanied by his daughter, Rebecca Jane, whom he left in Missouri when he was ready to come back to California. The following year, 1867, Mr. Patrick, his wife and their six children made the overland trip to Missouri, and it was while en route that their infant daughter, Emma, died and was buried in Nebraska. After spending about a year in the East, Mrs. Patrick and her daughters returned to California via Cape Horn, while Mr. Patrick and his son brought a band of stock over the plains. In the band were two fine Jacks that he used for breeding purposes and they did much to raise the standard of mules in this section of the county. He exhibited them at the State Fair in Sacramento, in 1868, and one took first prize, a silver cup, which Mrs. Compton now has, and the other, the second prize. On the steamer Mrs. Patrick and her children occupied a stateroom adjoining that of General Bidwell and his bride, who were just returning to Butte County after an extended wedding trip. Mr. Patrick died on the ranch on March 9, 1870, leaving his widow with six children. She endured many privations and hardships to rear her children and to conclude the requirements to secure title to her property, two hundred forty acres, to which she added, by good management, one hundred eighty-three acres adjoining, two hundred eighty-four acres lying southeast from the ranch, and one hundred twenty-one acres near by. She also owned considerable property in Chico. Of the original property in the Patrick ranch, Mrs. Bee Compton and W. G. Patrick are now the owners.

Seven years after the death of Mr. Patrick his widow married Christopher Columbus Salmon, a native of Tennessee, who came to California in 1859 and thereafter farmed and raised stock until his death.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick had eight children born to them, namely: Mary Evans, who married Sylvester G. Eastman and resides near Chico; Rebecca Jane, widow of Jerome Moore and the mother of six children, the four living being William LeRoy (Lee), Martha Cordelia (Mattie), Francis Burnham, and Eletta V.; Elizabeth F., who married S. C. Schoonover, and had three children, the two living being Dorance Mason and William (Mrs. Schoonover died in 1905; her three children were born in Missouri and were brought to California by their parents in 1858, coming via water); Thomas James, the first child born in California, died April 1, 1918, the father of three children, the two living being George Grover and Frances Folsom; Bee, who married Adam Compton and resides near the old home place; William Garrison, living on the old home ranch with his wife and their three living children, Melissa Bee, William Garrison, Jr., and Anna Marie; Ethel, a son born in Missouri, and Emma, a daughter born in California, both died in infancy.

Mrs. Patrick was a splendid representative of those fearless and courageous women who endured the trials and discomforts of frontier life, to whom the present generation is greatly indebted for their aid in establishing and promoting everything that made for improved conditions, educationally, socially and religiously. After a residence in California covering a period of forty years, Mrs. Melissa V. (Patrick) Salmon passed on to her reward on December 1, 1898, thus closing a life filled with kindly deeds. Death: Mar. 9, 1870

W.G. Patrick was born in Howard County, Mo., March 9, 1825. They settled down to life on a farm in Randolph County, where four children were born to them, and lived there until coming to California in 1858. Upon arriving in this state they came to Butte County and settled on a quarter section of land two and one half miles southwest of what is now the city of Chico. Mr. Patrick proved up on this land, but when his wife inherited a portion of the Wright property from her brother, Thomas Shelton Wright, he sold out and settled upon the ranch that afterwards became known as the Patrick ranch.

This property was surveyed from a grant in 1853 and negotiations were entered into between Mr. Wright and General Bidwell for some eleven hundred forty acres, although the patent to the property came direct from the United States Government to Mr. Wright and his heirs. Mr. Wright died on December 9, 1863, and Mr. Patrick was appointed administrator of the estate. The legal requirements to secure clear title to the land had not been completed at the time of the death of Mr. Wright, and Mr. Patrick carried the matter along, and when he died it devolved upon his widow to finish the transaction whereby she could get title to the property. This she did, with the aid of General Bidwell (throuh long years a friend of Squire Wright), who gladly assisted her in securing the government patent to the land. Listed under Hebron cemetery, 3 1/2 miles SW of College Mound

Robert T. Wright was born in Adair Co in 1843 and is a son of Johnson and Eliza J. (Trimble) Wright, natives of the Blue Grass state. His paternal grandfather, Evans Wright and great grandfather, Richard Wright, were leading persons in their localities in their day as were also his maternal grandparents Mr and Mrs Robert Temple. (believe it to be Trimble?)

The father was also a preacher of the gospel. They had 9 children, and 6 of them living. Robert T., George P., James A., Non E., Italy A., and Samuel W. Those dead are Mary E., Ann and Malta. He died in 1865 and his wife in 1888.

On Febuary 20, 1868 Mr Wright was married to Eliza J. Farris and they became parents of 5 children of whom the living are: Leonard M., Minnie A., Elizabeth and William R. The mother of these children died 31 May 1883 and sometime afterward the father was united in marriage with Miss Alice Buster. They have 3 children, their son Clarence and their daughter Ida and Ina, twins.

HUSBAND - James Allen Wright

*Find A Grave internet site listed his birth and death dates. Pic of their double grave marker, rather large Mother & Father on to, both their dates and Wright next to bottom stone. Parents: Johnson Wright 1798-1867 and Eliza Jane Trimble 1819-1888. Spouse: Sarah Frances McDuffee 1858-1943 and 1 child listed Arenoval Wright 1887-1890 (male?) 9 siblings with dates. (copy)

Nothing much to date other then census and that doesn't agree. Other source had listed him name as James A.

Believe he was living in 1884 according to Randolph Co. MO History listed as James Allen according to mothers bio. pg 642.

Need to find more info on him. There were other James A. & James Allen Wright's that died 1928 & 1929 but they weren't this James.

1850 Randolph Co. MO census James age 4 with parents (which would be 1846)

1860 Randolph Co. MO James age 12 Mo. with parents (1848)

1870 Randolph Co. MO J.A. age 23m with mother E.J. Wright 51 KY.

HUSBAND - Claibourn Wright (Judge)

*Find A Grave internet site listed his birth and death dates and places.. Son of Evans Wright and Rebecca Summers, husband of Rebecca Vestal 10 children and after he death he md Martha Trimble they had 2 children. (one source said had 12 children, if so no one else has listed them.)

A picture of his grave marker, hard to read, another pic of cemetery and another one of a lonely old house (not sure if it could have been the church?)

A long article from History of Randolph and Macon Counties, MO 1884 - C. Wright (Section 30) Callao Twp. (some of this info is farther down in the Sources) He was a Judge. Was a native of Virginia where he was born. Experienced farmer and stock-raiser moved to MO in 1829 from Wayne Co. KY where he grew up on a farm and received his education. On coming to MO he settled in Randolph Co. and in 1834 moved to Callao Twp which he has since made his home, with the exception of one year spent in Texas in 1854. His farm was 260 acres. 1821 he married Rebecca Vestal, dau of John Vestal and they had 10 children all which are listed with births and marriages here.

BIRTH: Census records, Concord cemetery records Macon Co. MO and several family descendants. Has been stated he was born in VA and Wayne Co. KY but actually his parents were in Rowan Co. NC in 1800.

MARRIAGE1: Recorded Wayne Co. KY Book "Marriages of Wayne Co. KY 1801-1860 by Nutter pub 1972 pg 115. Claiburn Wright to Rebecca Vestill 1821 md by W. Summers and bondsman was Jacob Vestill. He had 10 children by this marriage.

MARRIAGE2: Md 2nd Martha Trimble and probably in Randolph Co. 1855. He had two children by this marriage.

DEATH: Info from cemetery records and also Obit from book 1 pg 163 & 135 of Macon Co. MO Obituaries by Phyllis Mears. They are abstracted so will copy what was in the book. Have copy of gravestones from cemetery.

"Clabourn Wright died 11 Mar 1886. He was born in Virginia 8 Apr 1800. He came from Kentucky to Missouri in 1829 and settled in Randolph county and in 1832 came to Macon county where he has resided ever since. He died at the old homestead. He had been almost helpless for sometime, owing to the infirmities of age. He leaves a wife and children. Interment at Concord cemetery." This was from the Macon Republican 1886.

pg135: "Mr Clayborne Wright 85, of Callao township, Macon county, Missouri died 11 Mar 1886 from nervous prostration. He was born in Virginia and had been a resident of Missouri for 57 years. He leaves a wife. Interment in Concord cemetery, south of Callao, Missouri." This was taken from Macon Co MO County Clerks Record of Deaths 1883-1888 from Macon court house.

There were several land records but haven't checked them all to date.

1800 parents were in Rowan Co. NC with male that could fit Claibourn.

A long article from History of Randolph and Macon Counties, MO 1884 - C. Wright (Section 30) Callao Twp. (some of this info is farther down in the Sources) He was a Judge. Was a native of Virginia where he was born. Experienced farmer and stock-raiser moved to MO in 1829 from Wayne Co. KY where he grew up on a farm and received his education. On coming to MO he settled in Randolph Co. and in 1834 moved to Callao Twp which he has since made his home, with the exception of one year spent in Texas in 1854. His farm was 260 acres. 1821 he married Rebecca Vestal, dau of John Vestal and they had 10 children all which are listed with births and marriages here.

They have had 12 children: Calvin S., married; Rachel E., who died May 20, 1861; Mary, who died February 6, 1860; Sarah R., married; Abi, who died November 4, 1863; Calista, George W., Alla J., William II., who died October 18, 1873; Thomas C., Emma and Eva May. He was a worthy member of the Grange movement, treasurer for two years of La Plata township and a number of years held the position of school director. In politics he is of the Greenback party, but was born and reared a Democrat. He belongs to the Cumberland Presbyterian Church of Callao.

CAPT. JOHN VAIL.

(Farmer and Stock-raiser).

Capt. John Vail is a well-known and wealthy farmer and stock-raiser of section 14, Callao township. Mr. Vail's grandfather on his mother's side, James Copus, was one of the seven pioneers who settled in Ohio, six of whom were killed by the Indians. He was born March 8, 1818, in Richland county, Ohio. His father, James Vail, was a native of New Jersey, and his mother, Sarah Copus, of Pennsylvania. He has two sisters and one brother living. His father died, leaving John at the age of seven and a half years, and Mrs. Vail, now 84 years old, still residing in Ohio. After receiving the advantage of a good common-school education, he remained in Ohio until 1860, when he removed to Macon county, Mo., locating just north of Macon, following the avocation of a farmer and stock-raiser in Lyda township. In October, 1882, he came to his present residence in Callao township, possessing 120 acres of home farm and 60 acres in Jackson township. The improvements in the former are more than the average of the county. During the late war he was captain of Co. H, Forty-second Missouri infantry volunteers. He is a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and has, at various times, filled a number of important county positions. He married, April 29, 1840, Miss Fanny Kisting, of Pennsylvania, by whom he has 10 children: Joseph F., Elizabeth, Sarah, Ellen, Samantha, Henry, Cetta, John C., William, Fanny and Cyrus, who died November 21, 1849.

Family group sheet located at the Moberly, MO library Oct 1998 listed James L. as son of Thomas and Jemima and listed birth and mg date but not death date.

No death date is known for James but was before 1880 as his wife was in census without him. Concord cemetery records don't have a listing for him either.

He had at least 3 children and last one known was b. 1855/56 and until census is rechecked won't know for sure.

1830 He was age 15/20 in home of Thomas White prob. Randolph Co. MO.

CHILD 3 Amy (Emma) WHITE-1016

OTHER MARRIAGES:

(male) FOSHER-1017 (MRIN:317)

NOTES:

BIRTH: Obit listed as as 78 in 1902 which would be 1824 and census records came closer to 1830-1.

She was said to be sister of Mrs Joel Wright who was Elizabeth White and Elizabeth was said to be dau of Mark White, but in obit of Mark he listed dau Mrs J.H. Wright but didn't list a Mrs Fosher in Iowa, but did list a sister in Iowa that could be her as ages are close. But that doesn't make her statement that she was a sister to Mrs Joel Wright correct either. WHAT IS RIGHT? There was dau Mrs John B. Richardson & Mrs J.W. Gates & Mrs J.A. Banta that she could have been in 1896 and md Mr Fosher before 1902 when she died? This won't work either as Mark White was born 1825 and Amy was born 1824/1830 and Elizabeth was born abt 1838. Maybe there was another Mark White Sr.? And Amy and Elizabeth were sisters to this Mark White? SURE NEED TO CHECK OUT THIS. According to family group sheet located at the Moberly, MO library Oct 1998 of one Thomas and Jemima White listed Mark, Elizabeth, Amy, James L. as brothers and sisters.

MARRIAGE1: Recorded Macon Co. MO.

MARRIAGE2: Not located but must have md Mr Fosher after death of 1st husband.

DEATH: Obit from Macon Co. Obituaries book 2 pg 192: "Mrs Amy Fosher, 78, of Bloomfield, IA died 4 Feb 1902 at the home of her son T.C. Wright, near Callao, Mo. from stomach trouble. She was a sister of Mrs Joel Wright. The remains were returned to Iowa for interment."

Family descendants had stated she was buried at Locust Grove cem. Macon Co. MO.

T.C. Wright was Thomas Clemons Wright JR.

CHILD 4 Elizabeth "Betsy" WHITE-1092

NOTES:

BIRTH: Census records. It was stated her father may be Mark White but not sure. An obit of Amy Fosher 78 who died 1902 said she had a sister Elizabeth Wright living but age of Amy wasn't as such she was dau of Mark White but maybe Mark Whites obit did list a dau Elizabeth Wright but not dau Amy.
She was sister to Mark White, parents were Thomas and Memima White.

MARRIAGE: Recorded Macon Co. MO Book B pg 26.

DEATH: Not located death date but believe it to be before 1924. As wasn't listed in obit of husband at that time.

1860 Macon Co. MO Joel H. Wright 24 Ky, Elizabeth 22 Mo.

1870 Macon Co. MO Town of Callao pg 1 #6/16: Joel H. Wright 35 Mo, Elizabeth 32 Mo.

Cpl in Union Army under Capt Banta. 62 reg't E.M.M. Co B., Enrolled 16 Aug 1862 Macon, MO). Relieved from duty 7 Nov 1862, Ordered into active service 19 Jul 1864 Macon, relieved from duty ---- 1864, Number of days actual service 116. Remarks: Killed by Bushwackers at Callao 16 Sep 1864. Story: This place was visited on Thursday night last by some 25 or 30 bushwackers, armed to the teeth and wearing Federal Uniforms. They represented themselves as belonging to QUANTRELL'S band of thieves and murderers. But it is supposed by our citizens that they were ANDERSON and his gang of outlaws and desperadoes. Quite a story of what they did in the town and all the people they killed and kept Clem Wright till they were leaving town and killed him outright at the edge of town. All those people must have been horrified by all this as all towns people were robbed and some killed. Clem Wright left a wife and several children.

Much more on this story was written and they were there only about 2 hours from 1 to 3pm and did all that damage. (copy)

BIRTH: Obit listed as as 78 in 1902 which would be 1824 and census records came closer to 1830-1. She was said to be sister of Mrs Joel Wright who was Elizabeth White and Elizabeth was said to be dau of Mark White, but in obit of Mark he listed dau Mrs J.H. Wright but didn't list a Mrs Fosher in Iowa, but did list a sister in Iowa that could be her as ages are close. But that doesn't make her statement that she was a sister to Mrs Joel Wright correct either. WHAT IS RIGHT? There was dau Mrs John B. Richardson & Mrs J.W. Gates & Mrs J.A. Banta that she could have been in 1896 and md Mr Fosher before 1902 when she died? This won't work either as Mark White was born 1825 and Amy was born 1824/1830 and Elizabeth was born abt 1838, Maybe there was another Mark White Sr.? And Amy and Elizabeth were sisters to this Mark White? SURE NEED TO CHECK OUT THIS. BUSHWHACKERS in CALLAO, MISSOURI
Callao, Mo., September 17.

Editors of Republican: This place was visited on Thursday night last by some twenty-five or thirty bushwhackers, armed to the teeth, and wearing Federal uniforms. They represented themselves as belonging to QUANTRELL'S band of thieves and murderers. But it is supposed by our citizens that they were ANDERSON and his gang of outlaws and desperadoes.

On entering the town they first stopped at Mr. Richardson's, our depot agent, and demanded of him his arms. He gave them a shot gun, and they then inquired of him whether there were any paroled soldiers in town or not. They appeared to be fully posted with regard to the position of affairs in this place. After leaving Mr. Richardson's they proceeded to the hotel of Mears, White & Wright. They there arrested and robbed several of our citizens of all the money they had upon their persons. Among those arrested was MR. CLEM WRIGHT, who belonged to Capt. Banta's company of E. M. M. Taking him and Mr. Wm White, they proceeded to the residence of R. C. White, and demanded his arms. There they got a revolver, and made him go to his store room, taking the prisoners along with them. There they robbed R. C. White of $250 in money, and stole from his store between five and six hundred dollars worth of goods. From White's store they proceeded to the store room of Moses Claybrooks and robbed them of some $700 in money and about $200 worth of goods. From thence they went to the store of Mears, Sears & Dennison; there they appropriated some $12 in money and some $200 worth of goods. While robbing the store of Mears, Sears & Dennison, some of the fiends proceeded to the store of Mears, Shain & Sears; they got $100 in money and about $150 worth of goods. They took all descriptions of goods. They supplied themselves well with coats, pants, boots, shoes, shirts, drawers exc exc. They robbed Mr. Wm White of $200 and took several articles from his grocery. Every citizen they met they demanded of them their pocket-books. They stole from our citizens some two thousand dollars in money and about fifteen hundred dollars worth of goods, besides a number of good horses and pistols. They also destroyed a number of valuable guns. The arrested Mr. Alex Elwell, an old soldier and worthy citizen. They demanded of him his arms and uniform. When they started from Mr. Elwell's house with him as a prisoner, he managed to make good his escape. The fiends would, without a doubt, have killed him, as they threatened to shoot every man they found in Federal uniform. They became very much exasperated when Mr. Elwell made his escape and swore vengeance against him. After the bloodhounds got through with their robbing and plundering, they started off with Mr. Clem Wright, whom they had robbed of $300. and closely guarded while in town. After taking him to the edge of town, they murdered him in cold blood. They fired five times at him, but only two shots took effect, both of which passed through his head. They remark after shooting Mr. Wright, that there was one d--d dog less in the world. They appeared to glut over their fiendist and murderous brutality. They are worse than savages and should be hunted up and shot down like dogs.

Mr. Wright was one of our best citizens, a high-toned, honorable gentleman, beloved by all who knew him. He leaves a wife and several children, a number of relatives, and a host of friends to mourn his horrid and untimely end. Cut down by the ruthless hands of the fiends in the prime of manhood. The outlaws could not have picked out a better man in the whole community upon whom to wreak their diabolical vengeance than Mr. Wright.

The brigands remained in town some two hours. They came in about one o'clock and left about three o'clock. They returned the same way they came.

CHARITON TOWNSHIP.

REV. JAMES DYSART

(Pastor in Presbyterian Church).

Mr. D., who has been for 40 years an earnest and successful preacher in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and whose name will be handed down to future ages as the founder of McGee College, is one of the most prominent self-made men in this section of Missouri. His father, who was the first man to settle in Randolph county, was originally from North Carolina. His mother, nee Martha Cowden, came of an ancient Irish-Scotch family, and was born in Sautsbury, S. C. James Dysart was born in Maury county, Tenn., September 18, 1807, and came to Missouri in the glowing month of June, 1818. He lived first in Howard county, then in Randolph, and for six years had a stock farm on the Chariton. In 1837 he married Miss Betsy James, of Randolph, and moved into College Mound. His wife lived but a few months, and Mr. D. married the second time Miss Mary Dameron, daughter of George B. Dameron, of Huntsville. By this marriage there were 12 children, of whom only four are living, one daughter and three sons: Fannie, wife of Richard M. J. Sharp, a merchant at College Mound; E. J. Dysart, owner of a store in Moberly; J. W., also in a store in Moberly, and G. William, a preacher at Arrow Rock, Saline county, Mo. All of the children were educated at McGee College, of which Mr. D. was regent of the board of trustees and founder. In 1879 Mr. D. contracted a third alliance with the widow of J. S. Harlan, of Randolph. Her maiden name was Mary S. Lockridge, and she was the daughter of Capt. William Lockridge, of the Black Hawk War. Her father was from Rockridge county, Va., and her mother, Ruth Davis, from the same county, her grandparents on her father's side being of Scotch-Irish origin. Mrs. D., who is a remarkably attractive woman, was educated at the public schools of Roanoke, and married, the first time, Mr. E. D. Atherbury, of Randolph. By her second marriage she had two children: Minnie D. and Josiah S. Harlan, who are at the McGee College. Mr. Dysart belongs to the A. F. and A. M., and has been all through the degrees, including the council. He also passed through all the degrees of the I. O. O. F. and the encampment. He served in the Black Hawk War. Of giant intellect and indomitable energy, Mr. D. has made himself what he is—a man of whom the State should feel proud. He still labors with undiminished zeal in the cause of Him who “died that we might live.”

STEVEN GIPSON

(Farmer and Stock-raiser).

Mr. Gipson was born in North Carolina January 22, 1813. He moved when a boy to Wayne county, Ky., and after he was grown to Missouri. When he came to the State it was filled with Indians, Jovias and Sacs, among whom he spent the first years of his residence here, occupying himself in hunting, farming and taking care of stock. He first settled in Randolph county near the present site of Huntsville, though at that time the town was not built. Many times he bore arms against the Indians, and served in the Black Hawk War under Gen. Clark. Mr. Gipson is one of the wealthiest men in Chariton township, and much of his money was made as a tiller of the soil. He still owns land to the amount of 1,700 acres, though since 1863 he has been en-

House Completes Social Security Benefits Action

Bill Increasing Benefits Seven Per Cent Is Sent To Ike for Signature

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House completed congressional action and sent to President Eisenhower today a bill increasing social security benefits 7 per cent.

The House, without debate, accepted Senate-passed revisions in the bill.

The chief change from the original House version was a reduction in the amount of federal public assistance grants from 288 million dollars to 197 million.

As the measure goes to the White House for the President's signature, beneficiaries under the federal old age and survivors program would get a 7 per cent increase in benefits in checks going out next Feb. 3, with a $3 minimum monthly increase.

The administration had endorsed that part of the bill but objected to federal financing of a bigger proportion of the public assistance program.

At the same time, the payroll tax on covered workers and employers will go up from 2½ to 3½ per cent starting Jan. 1, and the taxable wage base will be increased from $4,200 to $4,800 a year.

The increase will mean higher pay check deductions for covered workers; the amount rising from $94.50 to $120 a year.

New Light Shed On Greenlease Case By Woman

Former Wife Of Union Official Swears Taxi Operator Got Money

WASHINGTON (AP) — The former wife of Robert (Barnie) Baker swore today he once told her that Joseph Costello, St. Louis taxiline operator, "got the Greenlease money, and that's why he tried to kill himself."

"I may get killed for telling," Mollie Baker, divorced wife of Teamsters Union official Baker, told the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee.

The committee had hinted last week that it might produce some sensational testimony about the $300,000 that has never been recovered from the $600,000 ransom paid in 1953 by the parents of young Bobby Greenlease of Kansas City, Mo., who was kidnapped and slain.

Mrs. Baker reeled off a story of links between the underworld and Baker, a top lieutenant of Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa.

At times, she protested at having to answer the questions shot at her by Robert F. Kennedy, committee counsel.

It was John Hager, a taxi driver employed by Costello's Ace Cab Co., who gave St. Louis police the tip that led to the capture of Carl Austin Hall, the kidnap-slayer of the 6-year-old Greenlease boy.

Hall and his accomplice, Bonnie Brown Heady were executed for the crime, but the police never recovered half of the ransom.

Military Heads Take Close Look at U. S. Sea Power

Aboard the Aircraft Carrier Franklin D. Roosevelt, Sept. 26— (AP) — A Navy carrier task force sailed from Norfolk today to give Defense Secretary Louis Johnson and other ranking U. S. military officials an on-board look at how modern seapower operates.

Secretary of the Air Force Symington; General Omar Bradley, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff of the three services; General C. B. Cates, commandant of the Marine Corps, and a group of civilians also were to sit in on the one-day naval exercise of the Atlantic coast.

The civilians — about eighty representatives of labor, education, industry and other units of the nation's economy — were finishing a week of talks with policy-making military leaders in Washington and visits to two Air Force and Army installations. The purpose of this trip, as was that of previous ones, was to let representatives of the taxpayers see how the military runs, and to learn at first hand its problems.

The Defense Secretary started these trips recently to bring the heads of the three armed services together informally to foster closer coordination in the military department.

But today Johnson was working the "orientation" both ways. He wanted, the Air Force and Army high command to see how the Navy would fight another war — something Defense Department chiefs call "cross education" among the armed forces.

In the car at the time it was picked up. They were Delbert Varlow, 17, and Garold Halling, 13, both of Cadott, Wis. Halling was driving when the car was recovered.

The State Patrol said the boys had admitted taking a Ford in Wisconsin, which they later abandoned in Minnesota, prior to picking up a Ford panel truck in that state.

The Ford panel truck was in turn abandoned in Macon, at which time the King vehicle was taken.

Picket lines were thrown up around the plant, which is about 20 miles west of Allentown.

An Associated Press survey of 14 counties disclosed that experts estimate the current harvest will top even last year's crop, despite long summer droughts.

Only two eastern European countries were included in the survey, because most Iron Curtain countries have made it a crime to disclose crop estimates.

Europe's wheat production in 1948 was 36,800,000 tons. This was 86.5 per cent of the 1934-38 average total. Both totals exclude Russia which refuses to furnish figures.

WIFE	- Sarah Jane Wright *Find A Grave internet site listed Sarah's birth right but death listed as 1876 but no date on her stone. Yet has been said she was living in 1899 yet. She was still living in census of 1880 Macon Co. MO with husband and children. (so 1906 could be the right date?) Husband died 1908. Parents: Claybourn Wright 1800-1886 and Rebecca Vestal 1804-1852. Spouse: Moses Burnett 1829-1908. Their double grave marker in Concord Cem, Callao, Macon Co. MO, pic of stone and one of cemetery and one of entrance sign. 4 children of 8 listed with dates, 9 siblings also with dates. (copy) BIRTH: Census records and obit of dau 1899, living in Macon Co. MO Sarah Jane age 16 Mo with parents. 1860 Macon Co. MO, pg 53 #389/393: Moses Burnet 35 KY farmer 800-1000, Sarah 25 MO, Evans? 5m MO, Allen 3 MO, James 1 MO. 1870 Callao, Macon Co. From the book "Macon County, Sesquicentennial 1837 - 1987"

6 February, 1940

Mr. William C. Wright, 99, of Macon cast his first vote for Abraham Lincoln in the fall of 1864, and followed the Republican party's beliefs until 1915 when he became a Democrat. (In 1986 when his granddaughter, Mrs. Nadine Smith, was asked what happened to change his political views, she had no idea.)

Born in a 2-room log cabin on February 6, 1841 south of Callao, Mr. Wright has seen Macon County "grow up from a Pup". He also saw the first train to enter the county on the Hannibal-St. Joseph Railroad. During the Civil War he joined "Home Guards". a military unit of the Union forces, under Capt. Jep Banta. When the war ended, Capt. Banta rode away having never discharged his unit. Mr. Wright joked that he was "still a member of the Home Guards."
